

249

In the name of God amen: I, J. V. Tucker of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, P.O. Mock, being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life do make ordain, publish and declare this my last will and testament that is to say;

First: after all my lawful debts are paid and discharged, I give and bequeath to my wife Martha C. Tucker all of my property both personal and real to have and to hold so long as she lives.

Secondly: At her death the said property both personal and real to be distributed as follows: My daughter Elizabeth S. Smith wife of A. J. Smith to receive One dollar ($1.00) in cash, the balance of my estate to be divided equally between the legal heirs of my estate. Likewise I make, constitute and appoint E. W. Tucker my eldest son to be my executor of this my last will and testament. May 15, 1912.

Signed. J. V. Tucker.

I, witness whereof, I have hereto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 15th day of May 1912.

The above written instrument was subscribed by the said J. V. Tucker in our presence, and acknowledged by him to each of us; and he at the same time declared the above instrument, so subscribed to be his last will and testament, and we at his request have signed our names as witness hereto in the presence of each other, and written opposite our names our respective abodes.

Robert Weatherford, Marned, Ky.
H. B. Moorman, Marned, Ky.
G. P. Macy, Marned, Ky.

State of Kentucky
County of Breckinridge-----Breckinridge County Court.
Regular Term, May 26, 1913.

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of J. V. Tucker deceased, was this day produced to court and offered for probate, whereupon came Robt Weatherford and G. P. Macy two of the subscribing witnesses thereto and upon their testimony the court adjudged the sameas and for the last will and testament of J. V. Tucker deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same with the foregoing and this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Attest: H. M. Beard, Clerk.

I, Christopher C. Davis, a citizen of Breckenridge County, State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and knowing the uncertainty of this life, and desiring the make other disposition of my wordly possessions, other than that made by the Statutes of Descent and Distribution under the laws of this state, do make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking and nullifying and holding for naught ~~any and all~~ any and all other wills or testaments that may heretofore been make by me.

2

It is my will that after my death that all my just debts be fully paid to include all funeral expenses and a decent burial.

3

After the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses, it is my will, wish and desire that my beloved wife Sarah Eliza Davis have all of my property of every kind and nature whatsoever, let it be real personal or mixed, I mean by this that she is to have and to hold absolutely, in fee simple, all my real estate to do with as she may think proper while living, to dispose of same as she may see fit before her death or to will the same at the end of her life in any way and to whom she may please. As to whether she may see fit to hold the same, to sell or will it, is left to her as she is willed all this absolutely and in fee simple forever. My said wife is also to have and to hold absolutely in her own right and to her own use and benefit to do as she pleases and dispose at her death as she may see fit, all of my personal property of every kind and nature, let it consist of moneys, notes, accounts, choses in action, farming implements or machinery or live stock or any other kind or species of personality of ~~every~~ nature and description.

4

I hereby appoint my wife Sarah Eliza Davis as executrix of this my last will and testament with full power to do any and all things necessary to carrying into effect and the perfecting of the intentions of this my last will and testament, with full power to collect any and all debts that may be due my estate at my death.

In Testimony whereof I Christopher C. Davis have hereto this the 20th day of April 1905 affixed and signed my signature, which is done in the presence of my two witnesses, Gus Brown and Paul Compton who as such witnesses have ~~innumerable~~ witnessed my signature hereto which is done in their presence, and which is signed by them in my presence as such witnesses, and signed by them in the presence of each other. All of which I so most solemnly ratify and confirm.

Christopher Davis.

Witnessed by,
Paul Compton.
Gus Brown.

Who have witnessed the signature of the testator herein, which was done by him in our presence and attested by us in his presence and in the presence of each other, this the 20th day of April, 1905.

State of Kentucky
County of Breckinridge-----Breckinridge County Court.
Regular Term, June 26, 1913.

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Christopher Davis, deceased-was this day produced to court and offered for probate and was duly proved by the oath of Paul Compton one of the attesting witnesses thereto, who stated that the testator signed said will in his presence and in the presence of Gus Brown, and they at his request signed said will in his presence and in the presence of each other, whereupon it is adjudged as and for the last will and testament of the said Christopher Davis, deceased and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Attest: H. M. BEARD. Clerk.

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN: I, Silas Lillard of Cloverport, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament.

1st. I hereby give and bequeath to my brother John Lillard and Eliza Lillard his wife the farm in Hancock County, Ky., the same containing 194 acres, to be used occupied and enjoyed by them during their natural lives.
after their death the same is to pass to their daughter Mrs. Anna English wife of Frank English the same to be hers and for her use absolutely.

2nd. I also give to the said John & Eliza Lillard the lots I own situated in Cloverport, Ky, and all the appurtenances thereon and thereto belonging, except the house and lot on the corner of 2nd & Chestnut Street 100 by 175 feet which I hereby give and bequeath to Anna English to be hers absolutely and in fee simple.

A sixty acre tract of land lying near Cloverport Ky on Negro-hill
I hereby give to John and Eliza Lillard for their use in the same manner as stated above.

3rd. All the notes, accounts and personal property of whatsoever kind and description, I hereby will and bequeath to the said John and Eliza Lillard.

4th. Power and authority is hereby given to the said John Lillard and Eliza his wife and Anna English to sell and convey any of the real property mentioned in this will that they may deem advisable to do so.

5th. I hereby request that no inventory be made of my estate, either real or personal, at my death but that the same be controlled absolutely by the beneficiaries named herein.

Witness my hand this 27th day of March 1912.

Silas Lillard.

Signed by the testator in our presence, who witnessed the signature of the testator, and also in the presence of each other.

Witnesseth:

Wm G. Smart.
R. T. Groves.