

(3) My silverware, bed clothing, books, pictures and wearing apparel are not to be sold by my Executor, but ~~shall~~ such shall be divided among the members of my family, as they shall agree upon.

(4) I bequeath to my niece, Jennie Babbage, wife of Courtney Babbage, the sum of FIFTY ($50.00) Dollars.

(5) I direct my Executor to permit Miss Johnnie Warfield and Edward Board to select the two monuments referred to in my Will.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I declare this codicil to be supplementary to my Will of January 22, 1917, and is a part thereof, which I have carefully read and fully comprehend, and I have subscribed my name hereto in the presence of Dr. A. M. Kincheloe and Claude Mercer, as attesting witnesses, and each of said witnesses signed their names hereto as such in my presence and in the presence of each other, on the date first above written.

E. A. Shellman

We, Dr. A. M. Kincheloe and Claude Mercer, state that the foregoing codicil to the Will of Mrs. Ermine Shellman, was on this day read to the testatrix, and she acknowledged its provisions to be in accordance with her directions and wishes and she signed her name thereto in our presence and we signed our names hereto as attesting witnesses in her presence, and in the presence of each other.

A. M. Kincheloe
Claude Mercer

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.

Regular Term, September 24th, 1917.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mrs. Ermine A. Shellman, deceased, was this day produced to Court, and duly proven by the oaths of A. M. Kincheloe and Claude Mercer, the attesting witnesses thereto, whereupon the same was established as and for the last will and testament of the said Mrs. Ermine A. Shellman, deceased, and as such was ordered to record.

Then was produced a writing purporting to be the codicil to the aforesaid will, and being duly proven by the oaths of Allen M. Kincheloe and Claude Mercer, the attesting witnesses thereto, the same was established as and for the codicil to the said foregoing will, and as such was ordered to record.

Whereupon the said aforesaid will and codicil, together with this certificate is duly recorded in my office.

Given under my hand, this 24th, day of September, 1917.

C. V. Robertson, Clerk

I, Clarence T. Pope, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, and declare this to be my last will and testament.

(1) I desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

(2) I will and bequeath to my beloved wife, Ida K. Pope, all of my estate, real, personal and mixed and wheresoever situated.

(3) I nominate and appoint my said wife, executrix of this my last will and testament and request that she be allowed to qualify without security and that no Inventory or Appraisement of my estate be required.

Witness to signature:-

Patty Melton

Chase A. Haesler Jr.

Clarence T. Pope

State of Kentucky,

At a County Court held for Jefferson County at the Court House in the City of Louisville on the 24th day of November 1913 the foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of CLARENCE T. POPE, deceased, late of this County, who died November 13th 1913 resident thereof was produced in Court and proven by the testimony of Charles A. Haesler Jr., one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who also proved the attestation of Patty M. Melton, the other subscribing witness thereto; whereupon the same was established by the Court to be the last will and testament of said testator and ordered to be recorded and is recorded in my office as Clerk of said Court.

Attest: P. S. Ray, Clerk
By: Harry W. Russell, D.C.

I, P. S. Ray, Clerk of the Jefferson County Court in and for the County and State aforesaid do hereby certify that the foregoing is truly, completely and correctly copied from the records in my office in Will Book #53 Page 138a.

Witness my hand this October 15th, 1917. Signed in the name of the Clerk.

P.S. Ray, Clerk,
Jefferson County Court, Kentucky

State of Kentucky, County of Breckinridge, State of Kentucky, on the 3rd day of November, 1917, I, C.V. Robertson, Clerk of the County Court for the County and State aforesaid, do certify that the foregoing will of Clarence T. Pope, deceased, was this day lodged in my office for record, whereupon the same with this and the foregoing certificates thereon have been duly recorded in my said office.

Witness my hand, this 3rd, day of November, 1917.

C.V. Robertson, Clerk.

Will of Wm. Brumfield

I, Wm. Brumfield of Union Star, in the County of Breckinridge and the State of Kentucky, being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills by me at any time ~~hereinafter~~ made.

1. I bequeath to my two sons, Everitt ~~Aurthur~~ Brumfield, and William Andrew Brumfield, my farm of eighty-five and one-half acres, lying and being in the County of Breckinridge and the State of Kentucky, to have and to hold as long as they shall live, then to revert to their ~~heirs~~. If either of these shall die without issue, his share shall go to the other brother, if both shall die without issue the place shall then go to my daughter Atha Anna Brumfield, if she be living and unmarried, if married to her and her sister Mrs. Mary Ellen Troutman to theirs as long as they both live, this land shall not be divided or sold but go to their legal heirs.

2. I bequeath to my daughter, Mrs. Mary Ellen Troutman, the sum of one hundred dollars, which shall be paid by my two sons from the profits and emoluments occurring from the use of the above mentioned land. The aforesaid one hundred dollars shall be paid in full four years after my death, but may be paid in annual installments of twenty-five dollars each year.

3. I bequeath to my daughter, Atha Anna Brumfield, the right to always have a home on the above mentioned land with, and share equally with her brothers, as long as she shall remain unmarried. If she shall marry she shall relinquish all rights and title to said land, and shall receive as her part, the sum of one hundred dollars, said sum to be paid by my two sons, in annual installments of twenty-five dollars until paid. I also bequeath to Atha Anna Brumfield, my daughter, one cow; and one bed and bedding, also one sewing machine and one weaving loom.

4. I bequeath to my son, William Andrew Brumfield, one horse and one shot gun.

5. All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real personal and mixed, I give devise and bequeath to my two sons Everitt ~~Aurthur~~ Brumfield and William Andrew Brumfield to be shared equally.

In witness ~~whereof~~, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 22 day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

W.M. Brumfield

The above written instrument, consisting of one page, was subscribed by the said Wm. Brumfield in our presence, and acknowledged by him to each of us; and we at the same time ---- the above instrument as relinquishing to be his last will and testament; and we at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have signed our names as witness thereto, and written ~~giving~~ our names our respective places of residence, on the day and year above written.

WITNESSES: E.P. Krouse Residing at Union Star Breckinridge Co., Ky.,
J.B. Severs