I, Nancy Skillman, of the town of Cloverport and County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, being conscious of the certainty of death when ordered by Divine Providence and being now of sound mind and disposing memory do make, establish and publish this my last will and testament and do hereby revoke and annul all or any other which may have been heretofore made.

1. I hereby constitute and appoint my son James P. Skillman my Executor, giving to him full power to carry out the provisions of this will. I further give him full power to sell and convey any real estate I may own at my death, and the proceeds of any such property shall pass into the general funds of my estate.

2. My household effects, and all such articles, clothing &c. shall be taken by my two daughters Elizabeth McGavock and Lizzie E. Murray at my death, and divided between themselves equally and equitably.

3. I desire my Executor to pay all my just debts as soon as it can be done reasonably, also the funeral expenses; and then I desire the remainder of my estate to pass and be distributed by said Executor, as follows, viz: To my son, Abraham B. Skillman one share; to my daughter Elizabeth McGavock one share; to my son, James P. Skillman one share; to my daughter Lizzie E. Murray one share; to my grand son Wm. B. Cumphrey one share with a condition hereinafter stated; to my grand daughter Lucinda Younger (formerly May) a half share; to the children of Sallie Webb, (a deceased daughter), a half share, that is to say said children collectively are to have a half share.

The condition above referred to is this. My Executor shall apply so much of the share of William B. Cumphrey as may be necessary, to the payment of a mortgage debt now subsisting against his interest in the land of his grand father my deceased husband Richard Skillman, and the remainder if any, shall be paid to him. Said debt is due to A. B. & J. P. Skillman.

4. I limit the children of Sallie Webb to a half share for the reason that under the will of my late husband, they are entitled to a full share of the land yet undivided, while the other grand children, Wm. B. Cumphrey and Lucinda May are entitled to only a half share of the same. I limit Lucinda Younger (formerly May) to a half share for the reason that I have had the care of her since her birth and until her recent marriage and I presume she is reasonably well provided for by her husband. I leave nothing to my grand son, Elias Skinner, of the State of Illinois, for the reason that he is entitled to a full share of my husband's land when divided, and besides, at a former distribution under the will, he, and his brothers now deceased, received their share of the same in money, while the other heirs received the slave property which was soon lost to them. I deem these inequalities as they may seem to some, as just and proper under all the circumstances. In testimony whereof, I, Nancy Skillman have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 15th day of February, 1880.

Nancy Skillman (Seal)

Subscribed and declared in the presence of us as witnesses who have signed our names in the presence of each other, this 15th day of Feb'y 1880.

J. L. Heist.
J. P. Miller.

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court,
Regular Term, Feb'y 17th 1896.

The foregoing instrument of writing was this day produced to Court, and duly proven by the oaths of J. R. Murray, R. N. Miller and Wm. A. Webb who stated that they were familiar with the writing of J. L. Heist and J. P. Miller, the two attesting witnesses, (who are now dead) and the same was established as the last will and testament of the said Nancy Skillman, Decd, and as such was ordered to be recorded, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.
