

I, D.S. Richardson, of the County of Breckinridge, State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and desiring to make other disposition of my property than is made by the laws of descent of the State of Kentucky, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills that may have heretofore been made by me.

First. My Executor hereinafter named, will, as soon after my death as will be convenient pay all of my just debts.

Second. To my grandson Elisha A. Richardson Jr., the son of my deceased son Elisha A. Richardson, I will the sum of Five Dollars and no more.

Third. It is my will that my beloved wife Mary E. Richardson, shall so long as she remains my widow have to her use all the balance, rest and residue of my estate of every kind nature and description real, personal and mixed and shall enjoy the usufruct and income from the same to the extent of guaranteeing to her a living suitable to her station in life; but said property is to remain intact and is not to be disposed of by her unless it should become necessary so to do in order to furnish her with the necessaries of life, but in that event no more is to be disposed of than is necessary to supply her with such competency.

Fourth. In the event of the remarriage or death of my wife, then all of my property of every kind nature and description, real, personal and mixed is to be divided equally among my following named children to wit; R.C. Richardson, Sarah E. Richardson, Cora A. Beard, Sue L. Milner, and Mary E. Schreiber, my said named children to share and share alike.

Fifth. It is my will that after my death that my mercantile and other business be continued and carried on in like manner as it is now, believing as I do that a continuation of the business along the same lines as now conducted will redound to the interest of all parties concerned.

Sixth. My son R.C. Richardson being conversant with all my business and thoroughly understanding the same and he being possessed of my utmost faith, and confidence as to his executive ability to carry out my intentions in every particular I do hereby appoint him as my Executor of this my last will and testament and ask that he be permitted to qualify as such without having to execute any bond.

In witness whereof, I have signed, published and declared this instrument to be my last will and testament in said county and state aforesaid, this the 20th day of June 1914.

D.S. Richardson

The above instrument, declared by D.S. Richardson to be his last will and testament, was signed, acknowledged and subscribed by him in our presence, and by us as attesting witnesses thereto in his presence and in the presence of each other.

This the 20th day of June 1914.

Paul Compton
Gus Brown Witnesses.

CODICIL.
.....

I, D.S. Richardson, of the county of Breckinridge, and State of Kentucky do hereby make and publish, and declare this Codicil to my last will and testament, which will and testament is dated the 20th day of June 1914.

1.

I hereby revoke and annul item Second of my said will, which said item reads as follows to wit; - "To my grandson Elisha A. Richardson Jr., the son of my deceased son Elisha A. Richardson, I will the sum of FIVE DOLLARS and no more"; and said item as quoted above is now revoked, set aside and held for naught.

2.

In lieu of section Second of my said will revoked herein, I hereby substitute and declare that it is my will, that my grandson Elisha A. Richardson Jr., share in my estate equally with my children, R.C. Richardson, Sarah E. Richardson, Cora A. Beard, Sue L. Milner and Mary E. Schreiber; that is to say that my grandson Elisha A. Richardson and each of my aforesaid named children are each to receive a one sixth of my estate, share and share alike.

3

I hereby appoint the Bank of Hardinsburg & Trust Company, as Trustee for my said grandson Elisha A. Richardson Jr; to which said Trustee the Executor of my said will subject to and under its provisions will pay to said Trustee in the settlement of my estate the share of my said grandson as set forth in this Codicil; and said Trustee is directed to hold said share for the benefit of my said grandson on time deposit in the Bank of Hardinsburg & Trust Company until my said grandson shall arrive to the age of twenty five years; at which time said trustee is directed to assign and transfer said trust fund to my said grandson with its accumulation to be his absolutely forever. Provided, ^{however} if said Elisha A. Richardson Jr, shall die before arriving at such age of twenty five years, leaving issue, such trust fund shall pass to and vest in such issue; but if he shall die before arriving at such age of twenty five years leaving no issue, then such trust fund shall pass to and vest in my children, R.C. Richardson, Sarah E. Richardson, Cera A. Beard, Sue L. Milner and Mary E. Schreiber share and share alike.

256

Witness my hand this the 27th, day of September 1916.

D.S. Richardson

The above Codicil, declared by D.S. Richardson to be his act and deed was signed acknowledged and subscribed by him in our presence, and by us attesting witnesses thereto in his presence and in the presence of each other.

This the 27th, day of September 1916.

Lee Walls

Witnesses.

Allen R. Kincheloe

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.
Regular Term, December 26th, 1916.

The foregoing Instrument of Writing purporting to be the last will and testament of D.S. Richardson, deceased, was this day produced to Court and duly proven by the oaths of Paul Compton and Gus Brown, the attesting witnesses thereto, whereupon the same was established as and for the last will and testament of the said D.S. Richardson, deceased, and as such was ordered to record.

Then was produced a writing purporting to be the Codicil to the aforesaid will, and being duly proven by the oaths of Lee Walls and Allen R. Kincheloe, the attesting witnesses thereto, whereupon said instrument was established as the Codicil to the foregoing will, and as such was ordered to record; whereupon the aforesaid Will and Codicil, together with this certificate, is duly recorded in my office.

Given under my hand, this 26th day of December, 1916.

Attest;

C.V. Robertson, Clerk.

Witness

I, Nannie M. Smart wife of William G. Smart of the City of Cloverport County of Breckinridge State of Kentucky being in possession of my mental faculties do make and publish this as my last will and testament:

Item 1. I give bequeath and devise to my said husband William G. Smart all of the Real estate and personal property that I may possess at my death.

Item 2. I request that my said husband William G. Smart shall act as Administrator and no bond shall be required of him by the Court, and no settlement of same be made to the Court when the will is probated and no appraisalment or inventory shall be required.

In testimony I have hereunto signed my name this April 5th 1916.

Nannie M. Smart