

Custer, Ky

March 24, 1911.

I, Silas T. Bandy, knowing that life is short and death is certain, being now in my right mind, make this my last will and testament.

I will, and bequeath my soul to God who gave it, and all my property both real and personal to my wife Fannie E. Bandy, during her natural life, and at her death to go to her three children George Glen Bandy, Nannie Maggie Bandy and Silas Duron Bandy, as my other five children by a former wife having received their portion from my Father's estate (Byron Bandy) at his death.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Silas Bandy, deceased, was this day produced to court and being duly proven by the affidavits of R. G. Penick and George Harned, two of the attesting witnesses thereto, the same was established as the last will and testament of the said Silas Bandy, as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same with the foregoing and this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Given under my hand this 28 day of Oct 1919

A. T. Beard, Clerk.

Be it known, that I Edward B. Oglesby of the county of Breckenridge and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind, and in the possession of all my physical and mental faculties, do make and publish this as my last will and testament, that is to say that I give, bequeath, devise and dispose of my estate and property as follows:

That all of my estate, both real and personal shall belong to my wife Ella Oglesby to be hers absolutely during her life time and at her death shall revert to Mary Finley Conrad (my daughter) and her Children and no others.

It is my purpose and desire that my wife Ella Oglesby shall be executrix of this my will that she shall qualify as such without bond and that there shall be no appraisement of my estate, that she shall assume all of my debts and pay same from my estate.

E. B. Oglesby
