Union Star, Ky

____ day of ____ 1900

I, Emily French, of Near Union Star, Breckenridge County, Kentucky, make this my last will and testament.

First: I desire that all just debts be paid.

Second: I will, devise and bequeath to my son, J.W. French, all of the property, real, personal and mixed, which I own or shall own hereafter in fee simple, wherever the same may be located. This devise includes any lots or property which I may now own or hereafter own in the state of Missouri and which will come to me under the will of my late brother J.N. Haddock.

I make this will to said J.W. French because he has cared for me and will continue to care for me until my death. My other children have not contributed to my care and maintenance and for this reason I make my son, J.W. French, the sole devisee of all my property.

(Signed) Emily French.

We the undersigned witnesses state that the foregoing will of Emily French was written by Clifford Haddock, her brother, in her presence and at her request and after the said will was written it was read to said Testatrix, Emily French, and she signed her name thereto and acknowledged it to be her last will and testament in our presence, and, thereupon, we signed our names hereto in the presence of said Emily French and in the presence of each other.

D.S. Richardson
Junius Walls.
