

April 15th, 1916.

I, Frank Praine, of Cleverport, Kentucky, declare this Instrument to be my Will.
(1) I will, devise and bequeath all of my estate, real, personal and mixed jointly to my wife and son Fred W. Praine and at my death should either be dead, then the ~~survivor~~ shall have the entire estate.

(2) I request that no inventory of my estate shall be requested of my executor because of the faith I have in the ~~ability~~ of my son Fred W. Prairie, who I nominate Executor of my estate and I request the County Court ~~where~~ where my Will shall be probated, not to require any bond of him as such executor.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name to ~~RECORDED~~ this Will, the terms and conditions of which are written as dictated by me, all of which I fully understand, and I have signed same in the presence of Wilbur Chapin and Claude Merer, each of whom, signed his name hereto as attesting witnesses in my presence.

Maximilian P. Price.

We certify that the above Instrument of Writing was read to and signed by Frank Fraize in our presence and that we signed our names hereto, as attesting witnesses in the presence of the Testator and witness in the presence of each other. We further certify that the Testator understood the provisions of said Will and acknowledged it to us all of which is done on day and year first written.

September 4th, 1916.

My son, Fred W. Praize, having died since I made my Will in April 1916, I desire to make this a Codicil to my said Will.

Under the terms of said Will my wife is now the sole legatee of all my property in fee simple, which provision therein I now reaffirm.

I now appoint and request the County Court of Breckinridge County to confirm by its appointment, my wife to be executrix of my estate, and that she be permitted to qualify without giming bond and I further request that no inventory or appraisement of my estate shall be requested or made by her.

Ps. Freia zonata

We, Claude Mercer & W.T. Chapin certify that on this day the foregoing Codicil to the will of Frank Fraize was signed by the testator in our presence and in the presence of each other and of the testator in each signed our names as attesting witnesses. We further certify that said Codicil was written at the request of the testator and after being so written was read to the testator who acknowledged it as his desire in the premises, and that said testator thoroughly understood said writing. Sept 4, 1916.
