WILL OF FRAZIER HORSLEY.

I, Frazier Horsley, of Locust Hill, County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and full age, do make publish and declare this to be my last Will and testament:-

FIRST: I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate, as soon as practicable after the time of my decease.

SECOND: I own 200 acres of land and I want to divide it among my three children as near equal as possible and to this and I give devise and bequeath to my son Curtis Horsley the East end where he now lives except I desire 10 acres cut off of that tract next to my home place, leaving him the remainder and the improvements, and I give devise and bequeath to my two daughters, Ola Board and Mary Horsley My home place and including the 10 acres, cut off of Curtis, this to be divided equally between them, the line running East and West, the line to start at top of the hill and running East varying to the South sufficient to miss the horse lot, Mary to have that part to include the house and barn where I now live and Ola to have the other side, and I provide that the tenant house on the Curtis tract, where Lewis Compton now Lives shall be moved across to the big road, and on Ola's tract and a side room built to it. Also require that a hull of a barn 32 x 40 ft. and 12 ft. under the eaves be built on her tract, the moving and repairing of the house and the building of the barn to be a charge on each child's part and until this is done there is to be a lien on Curtis and Mary's part each for one-third of the cost of the moving and repairing of house and building of barn. The moving of the house and repairing and building of barn not to be done until after the indebtedness is paid. If my personal property is not sufficient to pay my Indebtedness, each child is to pay one-third of the balance and his or her interest in the land is bound to pay his or her proportional part.

THIRD; I desire that my personal estate be sold and applied to any indebtedness which I may owe, and if any balance be divided among my three children equally, share and share alike.

FOURTH; I make nominate and appoint my brother J.V. Horalley to be my executor of this my last will and testament.

Dated at Locust Hill this the 3rd day of January 1929.

CODICIL

I, F. A. Horalley, of Locust Hill, Breckinridge County, and state of Kentucky, do hereby make, publish and declare this codicil to my last will and testament, dated the third day of January 1929.

I hereby revoke and annul so much of my will as required my heirs to build the hull of a barn on my daughter Ola's part of the land, and said requirement may now be disregarded by all parties.

Instead of leaving the land to be divided as set out in my will, I have now made the division lines between all three of my children, and each child will take the number of acres that I have designated, the division lines have been fixed and explained to all of them and this will dispense with any dividing after my death.

I hereby ratify and confirm my said will in all other respects.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand this the 27th day of February 1929.
