Atte H. M. Beard Clerk.

We, Charles L. Pate and Amanda Pate, husband and wife, of the City of Cloverport, County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, being of sound and disposing minds and memory, do make and declare this joint instrument of writing to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills by us made.

First, we give, devise and bequeath to James Lewis Pate and William Albert Pate, children by a former marriage of the devisior, Charles L. Pate, Five ($5.00) Dollars each, and we direct that our Executor hereinafter named, pay to said devisees or their heirs and assigns, the amount named, as soon as is practicable after the demise of the said devisior Charles L. Pate, out of such personalty as he may die possessed of.

Second. We direct that all of our just debts and demands be paid, including a nice and respectable burial on the Cloverport Cemetery in a nice desirable lot, and for a suitable monument to our graves to mark our last resting places, out of any or such property that we may die possessed of, either real, personal or mixed.

Third, at our demise, we give, devise and bequeath the residue of our estate of whatsoever kind and whatsoever situated, real personal or mixed, to the Board of Trustees of the Cloverport Methodist Episcopal Church South, Cloverport, Ky., and their successors in office, and its use to be controlled by said trustees for the use and benefit of said Cloverport Methodist Episcopal Church South, at Cloverport, Ky., or any branch thereof wherein their judgement it is most needed to promote the cause of Christ on Earth, to be thus applied, making only such disposition of said property as said Board of Trustees of the Cloverport Methodist Episcopal Church South at Cloverport, Ky., shall judge best calculated to promote the object of this bequest as herein stated.

Fourth. The property disposed of by the terms of this, our last will and testament, belongs to each of us, share and share alike, and it is our wish, and we so direct, that this will shall not be probated until after the demise of both of us, but after the demise of either of us, we direct that the surviving devisior, should it be Amanda L. Pate, comply with the requirements contained in paragraph First and Second, and in the event it should be Charles L. Pate, he to comply with the requirements contained in paragraph second, then at his demise all the requirements not theretofore complied with, and with the requirements as hereintofore complied with to the letter, or as near so as it practicable, the surviving devisior shall at once come in possession of all the balance of the property of the deceased without bond or any court proceeding, to be used and controlled or disposed of by him or her, the surviving devisior hereof, in any manner he or she may see fit to so use, control or dispose of.

Fifth. We hereby appoint the Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South at Cloverport, Ky., at the time of our demise, Executor of this, our last will and testament.

In testimony whereof, we above hereunto subscribed our names and affixed our seals this, 8th day of March 1907.
