

and the same is now probated and ordered to be put on record.

Attest W. F. Hook, Clerk B. C. C.

Examined &

I, W. D. Holt of Holt, Breckenridge County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby make and publish this as my last will and testament and hereby revoke all wills by me heretofore made.

First - I will and bequeath to each of my two daughters Mrs Mary Rose wife of Walter M. Rose of San Francisco, California and Mrs Rose Lockett, wife of Gus T. Lockett of New York City the sum of two thousand ($2000) dollars in money to be paid to each of them by my executor as soon said sum can be realized from my estate.

Second - All the rest of my property, real, personal and mixed I will, ^{bequeath} and bequeath to my beloved wife Vanda L. Holt to have and to hold the same forever absolutely.

Third, I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife Vanda L. Holt the executor of this my last will and testament and I direct that she be allowed to qualify as such without bond and that she be required to have no appraisement of my estate and no inventory thereof.

Given under my hand this 6th day of March 1903. This will is wholly in my own ^{hand} writing.
W. D. Holt.

Codicil.

I give to my grandson Joseph Holt Rose my gold watch.

Given under my hand this the 21st day of July 1903 and written wholly in my own hand-writing.

W. D. Holt.

Kentucky Breckenridge County Court
Regular Term May 28, 1906

The foregoing instrument of writing ~~being~~ ^{being} ~~presented to~~ ^{presented to} the Court and the part purporting to be the original will of W. D. Holt, deceased, together with the codicil thereto was duly proven by the oaths of C. C. Skillman, Jno. D. Babbage, and Dr. C. Simons who stated on oath that they were well acquainted with the handwriting of W. D. Holt, deceased, and after examining the writing and signatures thereto believe the same to be in the hand writing of W. D. Holt, deceased, and the whole was established as and for the last will and testament of W. D. Holt, deceased, and ordered to be recorded whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly admitted to record in my office.

Attest W. F. Hook, Clerk, B. C. C.

Exr

I, George T. McBooy of the County of Breckenridge and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and memory make this my last will and testament.

First All my just debts and funeral expenses to be paid out of my estate I may owe at my death.

Second After payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Sarah E. McBooy, during her natural life and to use by her for her support and maintenance all my estate and property of every kind and character and after her death whatever of said property may remain on hands is to go to and belong to James E. Tate provided however that said Tate remains with my said wife and cares for her and attends to her wants and necessities during her life. But if said Tate should leave said Sarah E. McBooy and not care for her as herein provided or die without bodily heirs then said property is to revert to my brothers and sisters or their heirs and if said James E. Tate should die before my beloved wife then said property that may remain on hands after the support and death of the said Sarah E. McBooy is to revert to my brothers and sisters or their hired

Witness my hand and signature this July 7-1899
Interlined before signing George F. X. McCoy
Subscribed and acknowledged mark
in our presence as witnesses
Morris Eskridge
John P. Haswell Sr.

Kentucky Breckenridge County Court
Regular Term July 23d. 1906.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George F. McCoy, deceased, was this day produced to Court and offered for probate, and being duly proven by the oaths of Morris Eskridge and John P. Haswell Sr. two of the attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and Testament of said Deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Attest

H. F. Hook, Clerk.

County of Breckenridge
State of Kentucky

I Francis Rhodes being of sound mind but of advanced age and knowing the uncertainty of life do make this my last will and testament, all contrary wills promised or gifts are hereby revoked.

1st After all honest debts together with my burial expenses are paid I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Frances M. Rhodes the home farm with all the appurtenances belonging thereto consisting of household goods, stock, and farm implements with the privilege of keeping all said personal property on the farm or selling and disposing of such as her judgment may direct and at her death the above named personal property I will to my youngest daughter Margaret M. Rhodes and

I desire that my wife Frances M. Rhodes shall hold the title to the home farm above named during her life time and at her death I will that said home farm be divided between my two daughters Frances J. Storms and Margaret E. Rhodes as follows: It to begin at the mouth of a drain East of my house at being the first drain to empty into the North fork of Rough Creek above my spring. Thence up and with said branch to the orchard fence, thence with said fence to the lane as it now is. Thence with said lane to a corner of F. H. Rhodes known as the white oak corner (now a root was) Frances J. Storms as aforesaid shall have that portion of the home farm which lies on the East side of the line as above described which shall be her share of the home farm and Margaret E. Rhodes as aforesaid to have the West side of same line and from the white oak corner continuing with F. H. Rhodes line to the public road leading from McDams to Glendearne. Thence with said road to a corner to J. L. Rhodes and L. Green. Thence with my line to the North fork Creek which shall be her share of the home farm

I will to my son James R. Rhodes the farm on which he now resides, upon conditions that the said James R. Rhodes pay to either Thomas H. Rhodes or Mary E. Akers the sum of four hundred dollars ($400.00)

I will to my son William E. Rhodes the farm on which he now resides upon conditions that the said William E. Rhodes pay to either Thomas H. Rhodes or Mary E. Akers the sum of three hundred dollars ($300.00)

I will to my son Francis H. Rhodes the farm on which he now resides.

I will to my son John L. Rhodes the farm on which he now resides upon condition that he pay to either Thomas H. Rhodes or Mary E. Akers the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00)