Given under my hand, this the 22nd day of February 1904

J. H. Hock Clerk,

Examined

I, Joseph E. Miller, now of Marion, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, do make constitute and declare this to be my last will and testament, revoking any and all other will or wills, should <sup>any</sup> be in existence.

I

First, I will and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Mary Miller, all of my property, be it money, real estate or whatsoever kind or character, to be used absolutely but subject however to the following restrictions.

I hereby nominate and request that the Bank of Hardin burg, shall be and act as trustee for my said wife, and shall have the entire care, control and custody, of all of said property & further that said Bank shall only let my said wife have such amounts of money from time to time, as her personal necessities may require; the said trustee being the sole judge of what her necessities may require & to pay her accordingly.

The sole object of this limitation is in order to prevent my said wife from being overreached by third parties who may desire to borrow money from her or try to cause her to speculate with same, it being my desire and will that said money shall last her as long as possible and to do her the most good.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name, this 11th day of May, A.D. 1904.

Joseph E. Miller
Subscribed and acknowledged to be the said Joseph E.
Miller, my presence & to certify that the said will was written in accordance with said testator's directions & after it was written, that it was read to him, and that it was thoroughly understood by him & he acknowledged the same to be his last will and desire & that he subscribed my name as witness in presence of the testator and informed of such other, on said date of 11th of May 1904, J. H. Hock, Clerk
