

Kentucky, Breckenridge County Court.
Regular Term, March 25th, 1906.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Samuel Frank, deceased, was this day produced to Court and offered for probate, and being duly proven by the oaths of Will Dehaven and Delph Dehaven the attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last Will and Testament of said decedent and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Attest. W. F. Hood Clerk

In the name of our Merciful Father; Be it known that we Cinderella A. Gregory and George H. Gregory her husband of the City of Cloverport County of Breckenridge and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, and knowing that it is appointed to all men to die, do make and ordain this our last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all others by us made, both written and nonwritten, That is, we give bequest and dispose of our estate in the manner following:

FIRST: Being seized and possessed of a certain lot with brick house &c situated thereon, on the S.W. Corner of First and Huston Streets Cloverport, Ky. (See Deed of record Book 38 page 100 Breckenridge County Clerk's office) it is our wish and desire, after death, that our beloved daughter Drusilla K. Gregory, who has patiently cared for us in our old age, shall own, use and possess all of said real estate, together with such personal estate as we may be possessed of at our death, for her sole use and benefit during her natural life, and if she elects at any time to abandon it as a homestead, she may rent it and receive the rents therefor as if the property were hers in fee simple, and she is further privileged to dispose of, for her own comfort and convenience, at any time, any or all of the said personalty, she the said Drusilla K. Gregory is to be the executrix of this our last will, and no bond shall be required of her.

SECOND: It is our will and desire, that out of the proceeds of our said estate, the said executrix shall pay to each of our legal heirs the sum of One Dollar.

THIRD: It is our further desire that, at the death of the said Drusilla K. Gregory, whatever remains of the said estate, bequeathed herein, shall be divided equally among our living children or their legal heirs, share and share alike.

FOURTH: It is our further wish that at any time during her natural life the said Drusilla K. Gregory, at her own option, may sell and convey the said real estate embraced in this will provided however, that she shall invest the proceeds thereof in other real estate, wherever she may select, and said reinvestment shall descend to our other legal heirs as provided in section third of this instrument.

In witness whereof we have signed, sealed, published and declared this instrument as our will at Cloverport, Breckenridge County Kentucky, this 4th day of August A.D. 1897.

CINDERELLA A. GREGORY.
GEORGE H. GREGORY.

The said Cinderella A. Gregory and George H. Gregory at Cloverport Ky., on the 4th day of August A.D. 1897 signed and sealed this instrument, and published and declared the same, as and for their last will. And we Jonas D. Wilson, R.T. Mattingly and R.L. Wornom, at their request, and in their presence, and in the presence of each other, have herewith written our names as subscribing witnesses.

JONAS D. WILSON.
R.T. MATTINGLY.
R.L. WORNOM.

Kentucky, Breckenridge County Court.
Regular Term, April 23rd, 1906.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Cinderella A. Gregory and George H. Gregory, deceased, was this day produced to Court and offered for probate, and being duly proven by the oaths of R.T. Mattingly and R.L. Wornom two of the attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and Testament of said Decedents, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Attest. W. F. Hood Clerk

State of Kentucky.

County of Breckenridge.)) S.S.

I, R.T. Mattingly, a Notary Public in and for the County and State aforesaid do certify that the foregoing Will was, on the 4th day of August, 1897, produced to me in my Office and acknowledged Cinderella A. Gregory and George H. Gregory to be their willing act and deed. My Commission Expires Dec 15-1900.
Witness my hand, and seal this 4th day of August, 1897.

R.T. MATTINGLY.
Notary Public B.C.

Examined

I, Hettie Mc Cans of the county of Breckenridge state of Kentucky, do make this my last will and testament: I give and devise to my sister Georgia D. Shelby my one third interest in the farm now owned by Mrs. Along Bennett, Georgia D. Shelby and myself situate in the County of Breckenridge containing 120 acres and I further desire and will that my sister Mrs. Along Bennett shall have the proceeds and benefits of my said interest in said farm for four years dating from first of January 1906 if she shall live so long. I further will that my sister Georgia D. Shelby shall have all my silver ware, jewelry and what money I may have after my funeral and burial expenses have been paid. I do hereby constitute and appoint my sister Georgia D. Shelby executrix of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 13th day of October 1905.

Hettie Mc Cans

Signed and acknowledged by Hettie Mc Cans in our presence-

Chas. H. Drury
J. E. Morris

Kentucky Breckenridge County Court
Regular Term May 28th 1906.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Hettie Mc Cans deceased was this day produced to Court and ordered to probate and being duly proven by the oath of Chas. H. Drury who being duly sworn stated that said Hettie Mc Cans when she made said will was of sound mind, and said Hettie Mc Cans signed said will in the presence of himself and the other attesting witnesses thereto J. E. Morris and that he and the said J. E. Morris signed and attested said will in the presence of said Hettie Mc Cans and presence of each other. It is therefore ordered that said instrument of writing be and the same is hereby established as and for the last will and testament of said Hettie Mc Cans.

and the same is now probated and ordered to be put on record.

Attest W. F. Hook, Clerk B. C. C.

Examined &

I W. D. Holt of Holt, Breckenridge County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby make and publish this as my last will and testament and hereby revoke all wills by me heretofore made.

First - I will and bequeath to each of my two daughters Mrs Mary Rose wife of Walter M. Rose of San Francisco, California and Mrs Rose Lockett, wife of Gus T. Lockett of New York City the sum of two thousand ($2000) dollars in money to be paid to each of them by my executor as soon said sum can be realized from my estate.

Second - All the rest of my property, real, personal and mixed I will, ^{bequeath} and bequeath to my beloved wife Vanda L. Holt to have and to hold the same forever absolutely.

Third, I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife Vanda L. Holt the executor of this my last will and testament and I direct that she be allowed to qualify as such without bond and that she be required to have no appraisement of my estate and no inventory thereof.

Given under my hand this 6th day of March 1903. This will is wholly in my own ^{hand} writing.
W. D. Holt.

Codicil.

I give to my grandson Joseph Holt Rose my gold watch.

Given under my hand this the 21st day of July 1903 and written wholly in my own hand-writing.

W. D. Holt.

Kentucky Breckenridge County Court
Regular Term May 28, 1906

The foregoing instrument of writing ~~being~~ ^{being} ~~presented to~~ ^{presented to} the Court and the part purporting to be the original will of W. D. Holt, deceased, together with the codicil thereto was duly proven by the oaths of C. C. Skillman, Jno. D. Babbage, and Dr. C. Simons who stated on oath that they were well acquainted with the handwriting of W. D. Holt, deceased, and after examining the writing and signatures thereto believe the same to be in the hand writing of W. D. Holt, deceased, and the whole was established as and for the last will and testament of W. D. Holt, deceased, and ordered to be recorded whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly admitted to record in my office.

Attest W. F. Hook, Clerk, B. C. C.

Exr

I, George T. McBooy of the County of Breckenridge and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and memory make this my last will and testament.

First All my just debts and funeral expenses to be paid out of my estate I may owe at my death.

Second After payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Sarah E. McBooy, during her natural life and to use by her for her support and maintenance all my estate and property of every kind and character and after her death whatever of said property may remain on hands is to go to and belong to James E. Tate provided however that said Tate remains with my said wife and cares for her and attends to her wants and necessities during her life. But if said Tate should leave said Sarah E. McBooy and not care for her as herein provided or die without bodily heirs then said property is to revert to my brothers and sisters or their heirs and if said James E. Tate should die before my beloved wife then said property that may remain on hands after the support and death of the said Sarah E. McBooy is to revert to my brothers and sisters or their