Attesting Witnesses to the will

Subscribed and sworn to before me by J. R. Skillman and T. J. Moore, this May 22, 1909.

W. P. Hook, Clerk Breckenridge County Ct

By E. Dillon, Deputy Clerk.

State of Kentucky

Breckenridge County Court

Regular term March 28, 1921.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry A. Cannon, was this day produced to court, and admitted to probate, and after being duly proven by the oath of James R. Skillman, one of the attesting witnesses thereto, who also proved the attestation of T. J. Moore the other attesting witness, whereupon the same was established as and for the last will and testament of the said Henry A. Cannon and as such was ordered to record, which is now done accordingly.

Attest A. T. Beard, Clerk.

In the name of God Amen:

I Sarah E. Minter of Taylorsville, Spencer County, Kentucky, late of Irvington Breckenridge County Kentucky, do hereby freely and voluntarily make and publish this my last will and testament, revoking all former wills made by me.

First.

I desire that all my just debts, including funeral expenses and monument be first paid.

Second.

I hereby bequeath all of the remainder of my estate both personal, real and mixed to my two grand-daughters, Lulie Minter and Susie Minter of Taylorsville, Kentucky, to do with as they please.

Third.

I hereby nominate and appoint my two grand-daughters Lulie Minter and Susie Minter Executrix of this my last will and testament and request the Court to permit them to qualify without giving surety upon their bond, and that no appraisement or inventory be required of my estate.

In testimony whereof witness my hand this August 1920.
