LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF JABEZ C. LYON.

First. I will my soul to God, who gave it, and all my property, both real, and personal, as follows:

After all my just debts are paid; and a suitable slab, or monument, placed at my grave, I will, and bequeath to my wife Margaret Lyon, all my real estate and personal property, to be hers as long as she lives or remains my widow, and at her death all household and kitchen furniture to be equally divided between her two children and my three children. All live stock, farming implements, and my farm, at her death shall be equally divided between my three children.
