In the name of God amen. I, Charles May, Sr., of Cloverport, Breckenridge County, Ky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others.

1st. I desire that all of my just debts be paid.

2nd. I hereby give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Elizabeth May all of my property both real and personal, of whatever kind or nature, that I may own or possess at the time of my death; the same to be used, and controlled by her during her natural life. She may enjoy and convert to her own use any and all property that I may own at the time of my death, and any property remaining at her death, the same is to pass to my children and to be divided equally between them, and that part inherited by Settis Vance, shall be controlled by her absolutely, and free from any claim of her husband Scott Vance.

I appoint my wife, Elizabeth May Executrix of this my last will, and she shall not be required to make any inventory of my said property, except such as she may choose to make herself, or by her direction. She is also given power to convey any and all real estate, and perfect the title to same.

She shall qualify as my Executrix and not be required to execute bond.

Given under my hand, this 4th day of September, 1909.

CHAS MAY Sr.

Signed in the presence of us who witnesses the signing of the testator and also each other, this 4th day of September 1909.

Witness.
