

Subscribed and acknowledged by Manook Basham before us, this January 5th 1889, (as witnessed).
 Attest: John P. Haswell,
 Morris Eskridge.

Kentucky Breckenridge County Court,
 Regular Term, January 22nd, 1900.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Manook S. Basham, Decd., was this day produced to Court, and being duly proven by the oaths of John P. Haswell and Morris Eskridge, the attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and testament of said Manook S. Basham, Decd., and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Attest: Owen Cunningham, Clerk B.C.C.

Examined.

In the name of God Amen I James Addison Witt of the Town of Hardinsburg, County of Breckenridge, State of Kentucky, being in good health of body and of sound and disposing mind and memory (praise be God for the same) and being desirous of settling my worldly affairs while I have strength and capacity so to do, do make and publish this my last will and testament, that is to say after the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses including a suitable monument to mark the resting place of my body. It is my will and I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Eliza Ann Witt all of my property both real mixed and personal of every description that I may be possessed of at my death during her natural life with full power to sell convey exchange and dispose of as she may deem proper so to do. But should she marry again then said property shall be held by her as her separate estate free from the control of her husband and all claims debts or demands against him. It is further my will that a fair valuation or appraisement be made by three judicious neighbors of all my said estate and the same recorded in the Breckenridge County Clerk's office. It is further my will if my sister Mrs. Malinda Kemp and my niece Mary Witt or either of them become needy my said wife may relieve their wants out of said estate. But in no way will she be legally bound so to do.

It is further my will at the death of my beloved wife aforesaid after the payment of all of her just debts and the expense of her funeral including a suitable monument to be erected at her grave.

It is my will whatever there may remain of said estate the same shall first be equally divided between my wife legal heirs and my legal heirs each taking one moiety however my said wife may dispose of by will that part it being one half going to her legal heirs and out of the other moiety or one half of said estate at the death of my wife aforesaid going to my legal heirs. It is my will that my niece Mary Witt receive one half it being one fourth of said estate left at death of my wife but should she not be living at the death of my wife then my legal heirs to share alike as now provided by law. I hereby appoint my beloved wife Eliza Ann Witt sole Executor of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills made by me. In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal at Hardinsburg aforesaid, this seventh day of February, Eighteen Hundred and ninety.

James Addison Witt.

Signed and sealed by said James Addison Witt as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us who in his presence and in the presence of each other and at his request have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses.

B. F. Beard,
 W. K. Barnes,
 E. T. Guthrie.

Kentucky Breckenridge County Court,
 Regular Term, March 26th 1900.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of James A. Witt, Decd., was this day produced to Court, and being duly proven by the oaths of W. K. Barnes and E. T. Guthrie two of the attesting witnesses thereto, was established as

For remission by will see Order Book Dec 20, 1899, C.R. Clerk

and for the last will and testament of the said James A. White, Decd, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Att: Owen Cunningham, Clerk R.C.C.

Examined,

I, George Hook of the County of Breckenridge, State of Kentucky, do declare this to be my will and testament, hereby revoking any and all others, which I might have made heretofore.

First. I desire that after my death that any and all debts I may then justly owe, shall be paid, and should there not be money enough on hand for that purpose, I desire that so much of my personal estate as may be necessary for that purpose, shall be sold to satisfy any such indebtedness.

Second. I desire that after satisfying all indebtedness as above set forth, that my wife Sarah Ann Hook, shall have all the residue of my estate, of whatsoever kind, including both real & personal property, to be used and enjoyed by her absolutely, during the period of her natural life. Now, upon the death of my said wife, Sarah Ann, it is my will and desire, that all the remaining personal property and all the real estate, shall be then equally divided, share and share alike, among all my children, except Mary Jane Meador, widow of James Meador, deceased, to wit:

John H. James, Mr. Jubel, Thomas J. W. H. Nathaniel H. Sallis A. Miller, widow of George Miller ~~ceased~~, Andrew P. Flora Spelman wife of Gus Spelman, Alfred A. Pettie, Benjamin, Lulu Hendrick wife of Lude Hendrick, Mattie, Fred, Ella and Bulah Hook. Having heretofore, at various times advanced money to Mary Jane Meador, ~~wife of James Meador~~, wife of James Meador, deceased, to an amount in excess of what will be the per capita & distributable share of the remainder of my said children it is my desire that she shall not share with the remainder of my said children in distributing my estate

after the death of my said wife, as heretofore provided, but that the sum of ten dollars shall be paid her after death of my said wife.

In testimony whereof, I have herewith subscribed my name in the presence of the witnesses hereto, who in turn have subscribed their names in each others presence and in my presence, this the 30th day of January, 1899.

Geo Hook.

Witness our signatures, subscribed in the presence of each other.

Clairde Mercer,

Jubel Hook,

Kentucky Breckenridge County Court,
Regular Term, March 26-1900.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of George Hook, Decd, was this day produced to Court, and being duly proven by the oaths of Clairde Mercer and Jubel Hook the two attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and testament of said George Hook, Decd, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Att: Owen Cunningham, Clerk R.C.C.

Examined,

I, Katherine R. Kincheloe of the County of Breckenridge and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, make this my last will and testament.

First: I desire all my just debts and funeral expenses paid.

Second: I recd from my fathers estate and other sources during the life of my husband J.W. Kincheloe the sum of three hundred & twenty-one dollars ($321). This amount I give and devise to my children Marcene L. Kincheloe, Adeline M. Beckridge, Allen M. Kincheloe, Kate B. Stitt, and Ellen Kincheloe to be equally divided between them $64.20 each, and if either of them should die before I do, I desire that their interest shall go to their children if any equally.