

Hardinsburg, Kentucky July 23, 1918

I, James Frank of Hardinsburg, Ky; declare this to be my last will & Testament revoking any other that I may have made.

FIRST. I desire that all my just debts be paid.

Second, the residue of my property I will and bequeath to my son, Orval Frank. This includes all of my property of every kind, Character or description

I will said property to my son said son, Orval Frank, to the exclusion of my other children for the sole reason that I have lived with him for the last ten or twelve years and he has looked after and cared for me during said time. I feel that my other children who knew this to be a fact, will not feel that I intend to or have done an injustice to any of them.

I name my son, Orval Frank, Executor of my estate without Bond.

I acknowledged the above to be my will and the same was written at my direction and at my request, and I have signed my name thereto in the presence of Eliza Miller and D.D. Dowell as attesting witnesses and they have signed their names thereto as such in my presence and in the presence of each other.

Witness my hand this the day and date first above written:

Attest: Eliza Miller

" D.D. Dowell

his James Frank mark

We whose names are signed hereto certify that the foregoing Will of James Frank was written as he requested and that he acknowledged it to contain his desires and that he signed his name thereto in our presence and in the presence of each other on the day and date first above written.

Eliza Miller

D.D. Dowell

State of Kentucky

Breckenridge County Court

Regular Term April 28, 1919.

I, A.T. Beard, Clerk of the county court for the county and State aforesaid do certify that the foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of James Frank, was this day produced to court and admitted to Probate, and after being duly proven by the Oaths of Eliza Miller and D.D. Dowell, the attesting witnesses thereto to; the same was established as the last will and testament of the said James Frank, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same with the foregoing and this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Given under my hand this the 28 day of April 1919.

A.T. Beard, Clerk.

I, David G. Bright, do make this my last will and testament, to my beloved wife, ~~See~~ Gibson Bright, bequeathing to her all my estate, both real and personal, wherever it may be at the day of death, to do with the same as she may please. I request that my brother, H.S. Bright, shall advise with her and help her in attending to her business affairs.

Subscribed to this 16th day of October 1916.

David G. Bright -

Witness

R.L. Lyons

Witness

J.C. Payne.

State of Kentucky

Breckenridge County Court

Regular term, April 28, 1919.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of David G. Bright, was this day produced to court and after being duly proven by the oaths of R.L. Lyons and J.C. Payne, the attesting witnesses thereto, the same was established as the last will and testament of the said David G. Bright, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same with the foregoing and this certificate has been duly recorded in my office.

Given under my hand this the 28 day of April 1919.

A.T. Beard, Clerk.