

I, Jesse Macy, of Breckenridge County, Kentucky, do declare this instrument to be my last will and testament.

FIRST: After the payment of all just debts against my estate, I bequeath and devise to my two daughters, Lydia Macy and Ollie Macy, all of my property, real and personal, to be jointly held by them, so long as each or both are unmarried, but in the event of the marriage or death of either, then, all of said property shall be held by the survivor so long as such survivor shall remain single. In the event of the death or marriage of both of said children, then, all of said property shall be vested absolutely in the heirs of my body equally.

SECOND I hereby nominate Paul Compton as executor of my will and reposing special confidence in his integrity and ability, I hereby request the Breckenridge County Court to permit the said executor to qualify without bond. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name to the foregoing instrument, after having carefully read same and knowing its contents, and I have signed my name thereto in the presence of I.B. Richardson and J.W. Bruner, to witnesses to my signature, and each of said witnesses signed his name as such in my presence, and I hereby acknowledge the said instrument of writing to be my last will and Testament.

This 10 day of April 1913.

Jesse Macy

State of Kentucky

County of Breckenridge SCT

We, I.B. Richardson and J.W. Bruner, hereby certify that on this day the foregoing Will was read to an acknowledged before us by Jesse Macy, and we certify that said Jesse Macy signed his name thereto in our presence, and that we signed our names to said Will as witnesses in his presence.

We further certify that we believe the said Jesse Macy was in full possession of his mental faculties and knew and thoroughly understood the provisions of the aforesaid will which he declared to be his will.

I.B. Richardson

J.W. Bruner

State of Kentucky

Breckenridge County Court

Regular Term, Nov 28th, 1921.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will of Jesse Macy and admitted to probate, and after being duly proven by the oaths of I.B. Richardson, one of the attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will of Jesse Macy and as such was ordered to record, which is now done accordingly.

Att., A.T. beard, Clerk.

27 day of January 1921.

Know all men by these presents that I Hannah Hardin, of Holys, Breckenridge County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my will and testament hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made by me.

I, I will and devise to my daughter Forrest Hardin absolutely and in fee simple all of the personal property and personal estate of every kind, species and description, which I may own at the time of my death, to include household and kitchen furniture and furnishings live stock of all kinds, money, notes, accounts and shares in action, the same to be free from the charge for, or the payment of any and all debts, which I may owe at the time of my death, I will to my daughter Forrest Hardin, the parcel of land in Breckenridge County, Kentucky, on which my residence and outbuildings & outbuildings is situated including my residence the yard and garden.

Hannah Hardin

After item the first is taken off, I will to my son Zack Hardin and two daughters, Forrest Hardin, and Minnie Entaine, the remainder of the farm to do with as they think best and keep it together as long as they think best, when they make a division, I want Frank and William White, my two grand sons remembered.

First they must rent the farm to pay all of my debts, including my funeral expenses, if one of the three, Merrie, Minnie or Zack should want to sell their parts, let it be done in such a way as not to injure the rest of the farm, I hereby nominate my son Zack Hardin