

I John Alexander of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, do make and publish this my last will and testament; Herby revoking all former wills by me made; I bequeath all of my property, real and personal, wheresoever the same may be, to my beloved wife Lucinda Alexander after my debts are paid if any, giving her the right to sell and convey real estate; I further direct that if my wife dies without leaving a will that my entire estate at her death shall be divided in the manner following, that my Daughter Ola Hardin of Springfield, M.O., shall be paid five hundred dollars to make her equal in what I have already paid them, I desire that the remainder of my estate shall be divided as follows; one half to Ola Hardin of Springfield M.O. the other half equal between Allie Alexander and Eva Gray they being the only surviving children of my son Oscar Alexander, deceased. I appoint my wife, Lucinda Alexander in connection with my Grandson, Allie Alexander, to administer on my estate, and I further desire that there shall be no bond required of them, or any inventory demanded of my administrators by the Probate Court of Breckinridge County, for the faithful discharge of their duties as executors of my estate.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year of our Lord Nineteen hundred and twenty one.

Witness

John Alexander.

Z. C. Hendrick

T. H. Chancellor

State of Kentucky,

County of Breckinridge.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of John Alexander, deceased, was this day produced to Court and admitted to probate, and after being duly proven by the oath of Z. C. Hendrick, one of the attesting witnesses, the same was established as the last will and testament of John Alexander, deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same with this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Given under my hand, this 26 day of May, 1924,

A. T. Beard, Clerk.

Hardinsburg, Ky. Apr. 12, 1924.

Know all men by these presents, That I C. D. Payne being sound of mind and of a disposing nature hereby make this my last will and testament, viz;

First I will that all my just debts (should there be any) be paid out of my estate. Second, I will that what ever may be remaining after paying my debts of what ever kind or wheresoever situated real or personal become the property of my wife Mollie C. Payne absolute to have, hold or dispose of as she may deem wisest, and that she my wife be allowed to administer without bond.

C. D. Payne

Witnesses; A. R. Kincheloe

T. B. Beard

State of Kentucky,

County of Breckinridge.

The foregoing instrument of writing was this day produced to Court and admitted to probate, and after being duly proven by the oath of A. R. Kincheloe, one of the attesting witnesses thereto, same was established as the last will and testament of the said C. D. Payne, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same with this certificate has been duly recorded in my office.

Given under my hand, this 23 day of June, 1924,

A. T. Beard, Clerk.

By J. K. Duke, S. C.