

I, John H. Elder of the County of Breckinridge and state of Kentucky, being of full age and sound mind and memory, do make and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills that may have heretofore been made by me.

First. After the payment of all of my just debts and my funeral expenses I will and bequeath all of my property of every kind nature and description to my beloved wife Annie S. Elder, let that property be real personal or mixed. I mean by this will to give to my wife every thing that may belong to me at my death, let it be real personal or mixed.

In witness whereof I have this day set my hand, which is the 23rd, day of December, 1915.

John H. Elder

We the undersigned witnesses certify, that J. H. Elder signed his name to this will in our presence, and that we as such witnesses signed the same in his presence and in the presence of each other. All of which was done on the 23rd, day of December 1915.

W. Sherman Ball

Mike Miller

Hardinsburg, Ky.

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.

Regular Term, August 28th, 1916.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of John H. Elder, deceased, was this day produced to Court and being duly proven by the oath of Mike Miller, one of the attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and testament of the said John H. Elder, deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Attest: C. V. Robertson, Clerk.

I, John R. Ray, of Breckinridge ----- Kentucky (Farmer) make this my last will, I give, devise and bequeath my entire property real and personal as follows, that is to say; I will that all my honest debts be paid as speedily as possible, I bequeath to my sister Mrs. Mary R. Kley of Ky. and to my sister Mrs. Susan J. Gill of Ill. to my brothers D. W. Ray of Ky. and Stephen T. Ray of Mo. each $1.00 I will that my beloved mother Mrs. Mag Ray remain and be part of this household the balance of her natural life and be comfortably taken care of. I devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary E Ray the balance of my estate real and personal If it should become necessary for her support & comfort she has the right to sell deed and convey my entire estate or any part thereof. Whatever estate may be left at the death of my wife I give and bequeath & devise to my Step daughter Mts. Eva J. Nevitt now of Ky.

In witness whereof I have signed and sealed and published and declared this instrument to be my will at Rhodelia Ky. this the 11th day of Nov. 1904.

John R Ray.

The said John R Ray at Rhodelia Ky. on the 11th Nov. 1904, signed and sealed this instrument and published and declared the same as for his last will and we at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto written our names, a subscribing witnesses.

H. C. Vessels

M. J. Ray

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.

Regular Term, October, 23rd, 1916.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of John R. Ray, deceased, was this day produced to Court and being duly