Will

I, John Gibson of Irvington, Breckinridge County Ky, being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of life, do therefore make ordain publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, that is to say.

FIRST: To equalize the sons of my daughter, Margaret E. Parks, deed, Viz; Wilbur R. and Harold Parks, with former distribution to my other heirs in which they did not participate, I bequeath Twenty Six Hundred Dollars, $2600.00 and I further designate J.B. Gibson, after the execution of ample and sufficient bond to be appointed guardian of same for this amount and whatever else may come to them by further distribution. This money with accrued emoluments to be paid in equal distribution to each of said heirs when he reaches legal age.

SECOND: After all my legal and lawful debts are paid I direct that the remainder of my estate be divided equally among my heirs.

THIRD: I make constitute and appoint my son J.B. Gibson the executor of my estate without bond, hereby revoking all former wills.

This April 29, 1905.

JOHN GIBSON.

Witness; TAYLOR BANDY.
HENRY BANDY.
