

WILL OF JOHN M. ROLLINS.

STATE OF KENTUCKY.

COUNTY OF BRECKENRIDGE.

I, John M. Rollins, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and knowing the certainty of death, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking any and all other wills by me at any time heretofore made.

FIRST, I desire that all my funeral expenses and Just debts shall be paid.

SECOND, I desire that that all other property of which I may die possessed of any and all kinds whatsoever be left to my beloved wife Cornelia Rollins and I desire that she shall have absolute control of all property stocks and bonds of which I may die possessed, and I further desire that she shall be given absolute control of said property to sell or convey in any manner she may choose, and I further desire that she shall be granted the authority by the courts to sell and convey any real estate or property of any kind whatsoever of which I may die possessed.

THIRD, I desire that my wife Cornelia Rollins be appointed Executrix of my estate and request that the courts neither require bond of her nor an inventory of my estate.

In testimony of which I have hereunto signed my name in the presence of witnesses this the 14th day of April 1893.

STATE OF KENTUCKY

BRECKENRIDGE COUNTY COURT,

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of John M. Rollins, deceased, late of this County, was this day produced to court and the will was proven by the oath of Alpha B. Cashman one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and the Odeciel was proven by the oaths of Allen R. Kincheloe and Z. C. Hendrick the two subscribing witnesses thereto, whereupon the same was established by the court as and for the last will and testament of John M. Rollins and ordered to be recorded. Whereupon the same with the foregoing and this certificate have been duly recorded in my said office.

Given under my hand this 22nd day of June 1931.
