

52
Kentucky Breckinridge County Court,
Regular Term, August 15-1898.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Barthshela Martin, Deed, was this day produced to Court, and being duly proven by the oaths of J. F. Arnes & Rachel L. Dougherty, the two attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and testament of said Barthshela Martin, Deed, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Att: Owen Cunningham, Clerk R.C.C.

Examined. Know all men by these present that I, L. G. Vititor of Breckinridge County Ky being old and infirm make this my last will and testament I will and bequeath my soul to God who gave it and all of my personal property to my wife Mary Vititor and my real estate to my wife Mary and my son J. Vititor equally and they shall have the power to sell deed and convey to any party.

in testimony whereof I have set my hand and seal this December 14th 1893.

Att: Oscar Alexander,
John Alexander,
George Harwood

L. G. Vititor.

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court,
Regular Term, August 15-1898.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of L. G. Vititor, Deed, was this day produced to Court, and being duly proven by the oaths of Geo. Harwood and Oscar Alexander, two of the attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and testament of said L. G. Vititor, Deed, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Att: Owen Cunningham, Clerk R.C.C.

Examined. I, Jouse Jordan, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make this my last will and testament.

1st. I bequeath to God my soul.

2nd. I bequeath to Mary Jones, daughter of Lou & Flora Jones, my watch, my bed bedding and my trunk.

3rd. My pictures I desire given to Mrs. Amanda Jones, of Louisa, Ky.

4th. I desire all my just debts and funeral expenses paid, after which, if there is any money left I wish it to go to Lou Jones, with whom I have lived.

Witness my hand this 2nd day of August, 1898.

Att: R.P. Hook

Witnesses: R.P. Hook,

Robert W. Cox.

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court,
Regular Term, August 15-1898.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Jouse Jordan, Deed, was this day produced to Court, and being duly proven by the oaths of R.P. Hook and Robert W. Cox, the two attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and testament of said Jouse Jordan, Deed, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Att: Owen Cunningham, Clerk R.C.C.

Examined. This is the last will and testament of me, John Rhodes, of Breckinridge County State of Kentucky, hereby revoking all wills and codicils heretofore by me made:

As to my worldly estate, and all the property, real, personal or mixed of which I shall die seized and possessed or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease; I devise, bequeath, and dispose thereof in the manner following to wit:

My will is, that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall, by my executors hereinafter named, be paid out of my estate, as set out in stem first herein; and as soon after my decease as shall by them be found convenient.

Item 1st. I give, devise, and bequeath to my daughter, Ellen McGary, the west part of my home farm, as divided by myself, as follows, to wit: Beginning at a stone in the division line between myself and my brother, Thomas, thence North to the old homestead garden, a stone thence to a stone near the West corner of the garden, thence to a stone North, on a high second in the farm, thence to Wm Withers line, a stone on the banks of a branch of Clover Creek, which is the end of the division line. I give, devise, and bequeath to my son Longinus Rhodes the remaining east part of my home farm, so set apart by my division aforesaid, without any reference whatever to the number of acres in each. These parties live now on the land so set apart to them. And whereas there is the well lot of about eight acres, on the part set apart to Longinus, fronting both houses, which is excepted out of the general devise to him, and devised to <sup>him</sup> both equally, for the following purposes, to wit: the use of the well, and any other water inside of said inclosure of eight acres aforesaid, and for the further purpose of a play ground for my grand children.

Item 2nd. I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter, Ellen McGary, and my son Longinus, all the personal property on said farm, of whatever kind, both in the dwelling house, and buildings appurtenant, stables, barns, ~~the~~ stock of all kinds, farming utensils, as well as all the personal property, which may be any where on my said farm, or on my person, at my decease, subject, however, to all my just debts, and funeral expenses, as above set forth: - Subject also to the further charge on the land and personally herein devised: of $530<sup>00</sup> to be by Ellen McGary and Longinus Rhodes, paid to my daughter Laura Jolly, which sum is to be a charge on the land and personally herein devised, and which I desire to be paid soon after my decease, but which may be paid before.

Item 3rd. And having made advancements to my daughter Fannie Head of $1000<sup>00</sup>, (and to my daughter Laura Jolly of $1000<sup>00</sup>) - $470<sup>00</sup> already paid, and $530<sup>00</sup> to be paid as set out in Item 2nd. These sums of $1000<sup>00</sup> each is designed by me, to be their shares in full of my estate.

Item 4th. And whereas, having made advancements to my daughter Isabelle Lewis of $2120<sup>00</sup> - this sum is designed by me to be her full share of my estate.

Item 5th. - I have paid to my sons James E. Rhodes and John H. Rhodes $1000<sup>00</sup> each, as advancements to them - it is my will that this sum shall be their shares in full of my estate.

Lastly I do nominate and appoint my son in law Joseph F. McGary, and my son Longinus Rhodes, Executors of my estate without bonds.

In witness whereof, I, the said John Rhodes, have hereunto set my hand this 6th day of June, 1888.

John Rhodes.

Signed by the above named John Rhodes, as for his last will and testament, in the presence of me, present at the time, who, in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each other have hereunder subscribed our names, as attesting witnesses thereto, this 6th day of June, 1888.

John P. Haswell,
James H. Gardner.

Whereas I John Rhodes of Beekmantown County, State of Kentucky, have made my last will and testament in writing, bearing date the 6th day of June 1888; and have thereby declared, amongst other things, in item 2nd of said will. Subject also to the further charge on the land and personally herein devised of $530<sup>00</sup> to be by Ellen McGary and Longinus Rhodes paid to my daughter Laura Jolly. - Now I do by this my writing, which I hereby declare to be a codicil to my said will, to be taken as part thereof, that the said Ellen McGary and Longinus Rhodes, hath paid to my said daughter Laura Jolly, the sum of $530<sup>00</sup> as required by them in my said will, so that Laura now has her share in full, and there remains now, no charge, either on the land or personally as devised my will.

I further declare that the land devised to my daughter Ellen McGary, in item 1st of my will; and the personally devised to her in item 2<sup>d</sup> shall both be holden, by the said Ellen, and her husband, Joseph H. McGary as equal partners therein. I do this in justice to my said son in law, because he hath paid largely of the advancements to the other heirs; by his labor on the farm, assisted by my son Longinus. And lastly, it is my desire that this, my present codicil, be annexed to, and made part of my last will and testament, to all intents and purposes. In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal, this 25th day of February, 1859.

John Rhodes.

The above instrument of one sheet was, at the date thereof, declared to us by the testator, John Rhodes, to be a codicil to be annexed to his last will and testament, and he acknowledged to each of us that he had subscribed the same; and we, at his request, sign our names as attesting witnesses.

Jos. H. Gardner,
John P. Haswell.

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court,
Regular Term, Nov. 21, 1858.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of John Rhodes, Deed, was this day produced to Court, and the body of said instrument and the codicil thereto attached were duly proven by the oaths of Jos. H. Gardner and John P. Haswell, the attesting witnesses to same, and established as and for the last will and testament of said John Rhodes, Deed, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate hath been duly recorded.

Att: Owen Cunningham, Clerk B.C.C.

Examined.

I, Elisha Simmons, of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory and knowing the uncertainty of life, and desiring to make a different disposition of my property, from that made by law should I die intestate, hereby make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other will made by me.

First: I desire a decent Christian burial without unusual show, and after my death my Executor is to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses.

Second: I give and devise to my beloved wife Mary A. Simmons the house and lot in the town of Garfield Ky. bought by me of John Nichols and the same where I now reside, for and during her natural life, and after her death to be equally divided between my three children Lewis R. Simmons, Elisha M. Simmons and Louise Catharine Simmons; I also give to my wife all the household and kitchen furniture I may own at my death; the horse and buggy now owned by me; one cow, and three hundred dollars in money.

Third: I give and devise to my son Lewis R. Simmons three hundred dollars. I have heretofore given him considerable property and this three hundred dollars is all I desire him to have of any property I may own at my death.

Fourth: I give and bequeath to my two youngest children, Elisha M. Simmons and Louise Catharine Simmons, all the money and notes, and other personal property I may own at my death after paying the devise made in the 1st 2nd and 3rd items of this will; also the farm I own on the head waters of Corrette Creek containing something over 200 acres the same bought by me of George Brunnington; also the house and lot in Garfield, Ky. the same bought by me of Roderick Warfield and now occupied by Thos. Gray. All of said property is in Breckinridge County. In the event it should become necessary for the support of my 2 children (Elisha M. Simmons and Louise Catharine Simmons), or the expense of keeping said property should exceed the income derived from it, I hereby authorize my Executor hereinafter