

Given under my hand, this 27 day of Aug. 1923.

A. T. Beard, Clerk.

I Sarah E McCoy of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory make this my last will and testament.

First. All my just debts and funeral expenses to be paid out of any estate I may own at my death.

Second. After payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses, I give and bequeath to my beloved husband George T. McCoy during his life, and to be used by him for his support and maintenance, all my estate and property of every kind and character, and after his death whatever of said property, that may remain on hands, is to go to and belong to James E. Tate, provided however said Tate remains with my said husband and cares for and attends to his wants and necessities, during his life, but if said Tate should leave said George T. McCoy and not care for him as herein provided, or die without bodily heirs, then said property is to revert to my brothers and sisters or their heirs, and if said James E. Tate should die before my said husband, then said property that may remain on hands after the supports of the said George T. McCoy is to revert to my brothers and sisters or their heirs.

Witness my hand and signature this July 7-1899.
