First: I desire a Christian burial without ostentation or show.

Second: Out of whatever estate I have, my Executors hereinafter named shall pay all my just debts and funeral expenses.

After the death of my wife Elizabeth or if her marriage again; my real estate, and such of my personal property as may remain on hand, shall be equally divided between my children, and if any of my children should be dead at that time and should leave children, or grand children or descendants of either, the share or portion of such child of mine shall go to his or her children, grand children or descendants as aforesaid.
