Examined by

I, Joseph E. Miller, now of Hardin, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, do make constitute, and declare this to be my last will and testament, making any and all other will or wills, should, ^{any} be in existence,

I

First, I will and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Mary Miller, all of my property, be it, money, real estate or whatsoever kind or character, to be hers absolutely but subject however to the following restrictions, I hereby nominate and request that the Bank of Hardin burg, shall be and act as trustee for my said wife, and shall have the entire care, control and custody, of all of said property & further that said Bank shall duly let my said wife have such amounts of money from time to time, as her personal necessities may require:
the said trustee being the sole judge of what her necessities may require & to pay her accordingly.

The sole object of this limitation is in order to provent my said wife from being overreached by third parties who may desire to borrow money from her or try to cause her to speculate with same, it being my desire and will that said money shall last her as long as possible and to do her the most good.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name, this 11th day of May, A.D. 1904,

Joseph E. Miller
Subscribed and acknowledged to by the said Joseph E.
Miller, in our presence & we certify that the said will was written in accordance with said testator's directions & that it was written, that it was read to him, and that it was thoroughly understood by him & he acknowledged the same to be his last will and desire & that we subscribed our names as witnesses in presence of the testator and in presence of a shoather, on said date of 11th of May A.D. 1904, J. H. Hood,

Kentucky

Brodie 1891 County Court,

Regular Term, June 27th 1904.

The foregoing instrument of writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Joseph E. Miller, deceased, having been produced to court and duly proved by the oaths of Edward and Claude Mercer, the attesting witnesses thereto, the same was established as and for the last will and testament of Joseph E. Miller, deceased, and as such was ordered to be recorded, whereupon the same, and this certificate have been duly recorded.

(Attest) W. H. Mason, Clerk.

Examined

I, Geo. Parker, of Hardinsburg, Brodiesburg County, Kentucky, do declare this to be the last will and testament, and further declare that I have never hereafter, at any time, made any other will.

First,

It is my desire that as soon as practical after my death, that all my unpaid just debts, shall be paid, in the manner as hereinafter set forth,

Second,

I hereby will and devise unto my daughter, Judith D. Parker, to be used and enjoyed by her exclusively for the period of her natural life, the dwelling houses and out-houses with all the lands thereto belonging, and which I derived by purchase from Francis Peyton, his by deed of record in Deed Book 107, page 22; and from Allen Allen wife, by deed of record in Deed Book 138, page 40. I also bequeath unto said Judith D. Parker to be hers absolutely, all and any personal property, which I may own at the time of my demise. I wish further to declare that my reason for thus willing aforesaid property, both real and personal, as above set forth, to my said daughter, Judith D. Parker, is because she has remained with me constantly and taken care of me, in my declining years, and has treated me with the greatest kindness and affection ever since the death of my wife - now about twelve years ago.

Third,

I further will and devise to my daughter Robert Anne Heston, wife of McCloud Heston, the house and lot, with the land belonging thereto, which she now lives upon and which premises I derived by purchase from A. Lee Bishop and wife, by deed, dated the 10th day of October A.D. 1898, and recorded in Deed Book 107, page 11, upon the following conditions, to-wit;

I.

That the said Robert Anne Heston shall assume to and shall pay all my indebtedness which I fully own at the date of my death, my said indebtedness at this date only amounts to something like five or six dollars, but the said devisee shall assume and pay any other additional debts which I may own at the date of my death.

II.

In addition to assuming and to paying all my debts as aforesaid, the said devisee must pay all my funeral expenses, whatever that may be. Upon the fulfillment of the above conditions, then said house and lot shall be the absolute property of the aforesaid Robert Anne Heston, who is my daughter, free from any liens or claims, it is my intention herein that the aforesaid house and lot will be and devised to said Robert Anne Heston, shall be subject to the payment of all my debts, and shall said devisee pay them as aforesaid, then she shall be the absolute owner thereof.

Third,

It is further my desire and will, that upon the death of my said daughter, Judith D. Parker, that all the real estate devised herein to her, shall devolve to the remainder of my children, and to any deceased children as provided under the laws of descent and distribution now in force in the state of Kentucky.

Fourth,

I have heretofore provided for my remaining children in a manner that I deem proper, with the exception of my said daughter Judith, to whom I am more obligated for the reasons above set forth, than to any of the others. I further will and bequeath unto my son, Fisher Parker now living in New Albany, in the state of Indiana, all my wearing apparel, and also the pair of gold spectacles I now own, and
