Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.
Regular Term, September 27th 1909.

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mrs. Susan N. Teaff, deceased, was this day produced to Court and duly proven by the oaths of John O'Reilly and James E. Lewis, two of the attesting witnesses thereto, who acknowledged their signatures as witnesses to said will, and testified that H. DeH. Moorman attested said will as a witness in their presence and in the presence of the said Westman N. Teaff, and that Mrs. Susan N. Teaff signed said will in their presence and they in her presence and in the presence of each other, whereupon said will is established as and for the last will and testament of Mrs. Susan N. Teaff, deceased, and as such is ordered to record, ~~whenever~~ Att; W.F. Heck, Clerk, B.C.C.

I, Joseph Hudson of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky being of sound mind, and memory and desiring to make a different disposition of my property than would be made should I die intestate, hereby make this as my last will and testament.

1. I desire a decent christian burial without extravagance or show.
2. I desire all my debt and funeral expense paid out of my estate.
3. I have heretofore given to my daughter Susan Mary Johnson, wife of W.R. Johnson and assisted her and her husband in various ways as much as I deem that I ought to do in justice to my other children, and I have done the same for my daughter Margaret Bealine McGuffin wife of Thomas McGuffin and my son David Hudson, that is to sayd I have given to them and assisted them in various ways, as much as I feel that I ought to do in justice to my other children. My son David Hudson and my daughter Margaret Bealine McGuffin are dead, my daughter Susan Mary Johnson is living, and as they have received what I consider a full portion of my estate, my will and purpose is, that neither of them or their heirs shall have any thing more of my estate. This is not through any want of affection for them but because I have done for them all that I believe I ought to do in justice to my other children.

4. I give and devise to my other children Ramey Elizabeth Inlow, Sarah Jane Wilson "Doc" Hudson and John Thomas Hudson, all the estate that I may die seized and possessed of of whatever kind or character, to be equally divided between them, except that Sarah Jane shall pay out of her share to the other three Ramey Elizabeth Inlow, "Doc" Hudson and John Thomas Hudson, the sum of One hundred & fifty dollars ($150) being fifty dollars ($50.) to each of them, and the said sum shall be a lien upon her interest and she shall take nothing until said sum is so paid. ( In giving the names of my children I gave the name "Doc" as one of them his name is Absalom Carr Hudson)

5. I nominate and appoint my sons Absalom Carr Hudson, and John Thomas Hudson as Executors of my estate.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 23rd day of November 1903.

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.

Regular Term, September, 27th 1909.

A writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Joseph Hudson, deceased, with two codicils annexed thereto was this day produced in open Court and duly and legally proven by the oaths of Morris Ekridge, Gus Brown, J.E. Berry and W.H. Yates, subscribing witnesses thereto; the said Morris Ekridge, and Gus Brown swore that the said Joseph Hudson signed said will in their presence as witnesses and the said Morris Ekridge swore that said Joseph Hudson signed one of said codicils in his presence as witness and the said J.E. Berry and W.H. Yates swore that said Joseph Hudson signed the last codicil in their presence as witnesses; and that they each signed as witnesses in the presence of said Joseph Hudson and one another as witnesses and that they believed said Hudson was of sound mind and capable of making said will and codicils and that he acknowledged the same to be his last will and testament, and said writing was ordered to be recorded as the last will and testament of said Joseph Hudson, whereupon the same with this certificate has been duly admitted to record as such last will and testament.

Att; W.F.Hook, Clerk, B.C.C.

I, J.T. Anderson of the County of Breckinridge and State of Ky, being of a sound mind and in a disposing frame of mind, do make this my last will and Testament, revoking all former wills, do grant give and bequeath unto my Son-in-law Leonzo Aldridge, all of my personal property Viz; Consisting of one pair of work mules two head of Milch cows and two calves & four head of hogs, one wagon and all of farming utensils, also all of my household and kitchen furniture for which he is to take care of me and my wife so long as we live and treat us as though we were members of his own family. I appoint Leonzo Aldridge as my Executor without bond. I put him in possession of the within named property the same day and date of this will.

Witness my hand this the 13th, day of July, 1909.

In the name of God. amen. I, Robert M. Beavon of Mazonville, county of Breckinridge, and state of Kentucky, of the age of 70 years, being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do therefore make, ordain, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament: that is to say, first after all my lawful debts are paid and discharged, the residue of my estate, real and personal, I give bequeath and dispose of as follows, to wit: To my beloved wife, Gertrude Beavon, the land on which we now live, bounded as follows, on north by Mrs Greenwell and Edwin F. Egash on South — Frank Spear, on east — Henry Greenwell on West by J.T. Spear, and containing 103 acres, and all of personal property except 2 horses, during the term of her natural life, and after her death the land is to go to my son Baymen Beavon, and all the personal property except the (2 horses) to be divided equally between my 2 daughters, Minnie
