

WILL AND TESTAMENT.

I, Julia Hatfield, realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, hereby wish to make my last Will and Testament,

1st. I wish that all my debts be paid including burial expenses also a reasonable amount be set aside to erect a monument at my grave.

2nd. That my Dear Husband, Horace Hatfield be given  $\frac{1}{2}$  of proceed from all household furniture; to my daughter Cleo Harper one dollar (\$1.00) Five Hundred \$500.00 already been given her; to my son Willie Hatfield, one Hundred (\$100.00) Dollars, having already given him money on several different occasions sum total to be equal to others, to his wife Emma Tomer Hatfield who has been almost like a daughter I give one hundred (\$100.00) dollars; the balance of my estate I wish equally divided between my four other children; namely, Charles Hatfield, May Morris, Elina Williams and Bernice Tomer.

I wish my Husband Horace Hatfield to be Administrator without bond.

Sept 8th 1927.

Witness:

Julia Hatfield

P. R. Claycomb

O. M. Parks

STATE OF KENTUCKY

COUNTY OF BRECKINRIDGE

Regular Term April 23, 1928.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Julia Hatfield, deceased was this day produced to Court established as and for the last will and testament of Julia Hatfield; whereupon the same with the foregoing and this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

_____
Clerk.

Hardinsburg, Kentucky.

I, R. T. Laslie of Hardinsburg, Breckinridge County, Ky. being desirous of making a different disposition of my property than that would be made by law if I should die Intestate do hereby make publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other will heretofore made by me.

1. I direct that all my just debts be paid out of the proceeds of a Life Insurance policy that I carry on my life.

2. I give and bequeath to my wife, Ethel Laslie, my house and lot where I now live, for and during her natural life, or until she remarries, my daughter, Pauline Laslie, and her daughter, Edith Conway, to have the right to occupy the same with my wife so long as they remain single. After the death of my wife, or her remarriage, the said house and lot to pass to my two children, Pauline and Melvin Laslie and be theirs absolutely and in fee simple, share and share alike.