I, Geo. A. Day, being of sound mind and disposing memory and knowing the certainty of death and the uncertainty of life, and believing in our All Wise God, the author of all life and being, and Obedient to whom I much finally account for my acts upon earth, make and publish this as my last will and testament, revoking all others which I may have heretofore made.

First: - I will my soul to God who inspired it with a belief of His existence, and His eternity, and my body to His provident disposition. Second: My greatest desire is that my children, one and all, shall be Christian, and that my grand children shall be sober Christians.

Third: - I desire and will that my personal expenses be paid, and that any and all that I may owe,

Fourth: - I thank I bequeath solely for either of my children or their husband, upon any account, so that my estate will be charged with the same after my death, or should I be compelled to pay any sum for them or either of them during my life time, I desire such payments as I make for them, and any debts that are chargeable to my estate by reason of any such engagements, to be treated as disbursements to them, and the remainder of my children made agree with them in the final distribution of my property.

Fifth: - I earnestly request my daughter Nettie Reddy, not to loan any of her money except upon Real Estate Mortgage.

Sixth: - I hereby nominate and appoint my son Samuel M. Day, my Executor to carry out, effect my will, to wit, he to give such bond as the Court may require.

Given under my hand, this 17th day of July 1901.
