I, Lywell R. Gault, of Buckenage County and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and health and knowing the uncertainty of life & certainty of death, and moved by advancing years, do make, ordain and establish this my last will, hereby revoking any and all others that I may have heretofore made.

Item 1st, I desire that my executrix shall pay all my just debts and legacies and not have any abatement or public sale, if she can manage to pay without. Item 2nd, I charge the same before my daughter Ellen

I, Beards, shall have been given a good horse & cow. I desire that my executrix shall give them to her, or pay for in lieu thereof. One hundred & fifty dollars, as she thinks best, and she shall have ample time to do it in and if it is not done in her life time, my son Wallace is to do it at his mother's death.

Item 3. As my four eldest children have the advantage of the three youngest in education & gifts, I can do no more for them, I have given Annie a horse & cow 1897, and that is my reason for giving Ellen the horse & cow, & have all my children alike, and have what I thought was just to all.

Item 4. I will and bequeath to my faithful wife Sarah P. Peete, my farm and all property, both real & personal, that I may be possessed of, to manage as she may see fit, during her life, after paying the above bequests.

Item 5. I desire that my wife shall keep Wallace with her to work the farm, & manage her business for her, as he has done for me. Him to comply with my will at all times.

Item 6. I desire at the death of my wife that my son Wallace Peete, shall have all there is, that is the farm farming implements, and stock, as for contract verbally made between myself & him when we settled the farm, the house held, & after his mamma, to do as she pleased with.

Item 7. I desire that my wife Sarah P. Peete shall act as my executrix, to carry into effect this my will, and she shall not be required to give any bond, Sept 27, 1897.

Ludwell A. Peete

Codiceil, I, your mother my wife, chooses to keep William with her, she is to be clothed & supported - so far as she gets able to do it, from the proceeds of farm, this Aug 1, 1900
