att John E. Monarch Clerk C. C.

Examined

I Martin M. Glothman of the County of Boone and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and publish this as, and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills or codicils thereto that may have been heretofore made by me.

First. It is my will that all my just debts and funeral expenses be forth paid by my Executor hereinafter named.
Second. I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Letitia M. Glothman for life, one third of all my property personal real and mixed, and at her death such property to be equally divided among my children.

Third. My son Robert I. M. Glothman is indebted to me in the sum of $200⁰⁰. My son Thos A. M. Glothman is indebted to me in the sum of $253.74 and my daughter Alwilda Herndon is indebted to me in the sum of $451⁰⁰ and my daughter Virginia Claycomb is indebted to me in the sum of $226⁰⁰. These respective amounts shall be considered, and my Executor hereinafter named is directed to so consider as advancements made by me to my aforesaid children.

To my daughter Lillie M. Glothman I have made no advancements. It is my will, and my Executor is so directed to make all of my aforesaid children receive sums equal out of my estate, and in doing this, he shall take into consideration the aforesaid advancements. That it is it appears that I have advanced more to my daughter Alwilda Herndon, than to my other children. My Executor will first make all my children receive amounts equal to her, or the amount she has received, and in doing so he will take into consideration the amounts advanced to my respective children as hereinafter set out.

Fourth. After all my children are made equal as aforesaid, then it is my will, and I so direct that the residue of my property, real personal and mixed, be divided equally among my children.

Fifth. If it becomes necessary, or if my Executor shall deem it necessary to sell my real estate in order to carry out the provisions of this will, he is hereby authorized and empowered to sell the same publicly or privately, and on such terms as he in his best judgment may deem the most advantageous, and he is authorized and empowered to make deed or deeds of conveyance for any real estate he may so sell.

Sixth. I hereby appoint C. M. M. Glothman as Executor of this my last will and testament. In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto signed my name this 15th day of October 1889.
