

Ex 7

In the name of God merciful Father; be it known that I, Mary J. Miller of the City of Cloverport, County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, and knowing that it is appointed to all once to die, do make and ordain this as my last will and testament.

FIRST. I devise and bequeath unto my beloved daughter Susan Knola Rafferty all my estate, real, personal and mixed wherever found or situated, in fee simple absolute- that she, the said Susan Knola Rafferty is to control said property independently of any husband; and especially, and in no event is B. Rafferty the father of her two present children to assume the management and control of any part of said property.

SECOND. While trusting to the good sense and management of my said daughter Susan Knola Rafferty yet I recommend that by will she devise and bequeath her property and its accumulations to her sons Henry Hovious Rafferty and Douglass M. Rafferty share and share alike, and if either should die before her death, then the survivor shall take the whole and if in the course of nature she should survive both of said children, and they should die without issue then it is my desire and wish that she devise and bequeath her said property and its accumulations to the heirs of my brother James H. Hovious of Half Moon Bay, San Mateo County, California.

THIRD. It is my desire that all of my just debts and funeral expenses shall be paid out of any money on hand or from the sale of personalty if necessary.

FOURTH. I hereby appoint my daughter, Susan Knola Rafferty as Executrix of this my last will and testament without bond and she may take formal posession of all of said property without the intervention of a Court, as it is my desire that the general management of my estate shall be carried out by her without drawback or hindrance from any outside source, though she may, if she thinks necessary, consult with some good business man as to details.
