I Nelson Claycomb of Breckinridge County and State of Kentucky being sound in mind, but being warned by advancing years, do make and establish this my last will, revoking any and all others heretofore made by me.

Item 1st I desire that my Executor hereafter named shall pay my burial expenses, and all other just debts.

Item 2nd I desire that my son Nelson Claycomb shall have run of to him one hundred acres of land including the dwelling and other improvements, this I bequeath to him for and in consideration of his having taken care of me & his mother in our old days. He is also to share equal with my other children in the division of my personal property.

Item 3rd I desire that my land after giving Nelson one hundred acres, shall be equally divided among my children (except him) and they can sell it or divide it, as may seem best to all concerned or a majority of them.

* Item 4th The notes I hold against my children, I desire that no interest shall be collected on, but each must account for the principal. I also desire that my son Jo shall be charged with the sum of eighty dollars money loaned him, without interest, and that my son William shall be charged with one hundred dollar loaned money without int. neither of the last sums have I any note for.

Item 5th I desire that where any of my children are dead, that their heirs shall take their Father or Mothers portion.

Item 6th I am now security for my son William C. Claycomb on a note held by Mrs. Green Jordan, and I desire that if me or my estate has that note to pay that he must be charged with that amt.

Item 7th I desire that my sons Joel Claycomb and Willis C. Claycomb shall be my Executors to carry into effect this my will, and I want them to see that I am decently buried and a tomb stone like my wife placed over my grave this written & signed this the 23rd day of Sept. 1893.
