CODICIL

I, F. A. Horsley, of Locust Hill, Breckinridge County, ~~and~~ state of Kentucky, do hereby make, publish and declare this codicil to my last will and testament, dated the third day of January 1929.

I hereby revoke and annul so much of my will as required my heirs to build the hull of a barn on my daughter Ola's part of the land, and said requirement may now be disregarded by all parties.

Instead of leaving the land to be divided as set out in my will, I have now made the division lines between all three of my children, and each child will take the number of acres that I have designated, the division lines have been fixed and explained to all of them and this will dispense with any dividing after my death.

I hereby ratify and confirm my said will in all other respects.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand this the 27th day of February 1929.

This is to let any one know that I want Elvira M. Lewis to have every thing I have any interest in, the house and lot to belong to her to do as she pleases with after I am gone.
