

Examined.

Stephensport, Breckinridge Co., Ky.
March 15th 1897.

R. J. Napper.

This my last will and testament, being of sound mind, do will and bequeath to my present wife, Elizabeth A. Napper, the whole of my real and personal property situated in the town of Stephensport, Ky. Should there be at any time after my decease, coming to me real or personal property, the same to be transferred to the aforesaid Elizabeth A. Napper.

Attest: Mahitabel B. Robertson,

Attest: Allen Rollins,

Attest: R. J. Napper.

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court,

Regular Term, Sept. 25th 1899.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of R. J. Napper, Deed, was this day produced to Court, and being duly proven by the oaths of Martha Robertson and Allen Rollins, the two attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and testament of the said R. J. Napper, Deed, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded,

Att: Owen Cunningham, Clerk B. C. C.

Examined.

In the name of our Merciful Father in Heaven, be it known that I, Peter Thoman being of sound mind and memory, and knowing that it is appointed to all men once to die, do make and ordain this as my last will and testament; hereby revoking all former wills — that is to say I give, bequeath, devise and dispose of my estate and property as follows:

First: After paying my just debts and funeral expenses and tomb stone or monument not to exceed $500 in value out of any personal property or money on hand I bequeath to my daughter Harriet all my personal property, money excepted, to her sole use and benefit. My real property or landed estate of which I may be seized or possessed at the time of my death I devise to all my children, share and share alike, except that seven hundred dollars advanced in money to my son, P. Adam Thoman in his life time is to be deducted from the share of his heir by law, should such share, in the division exceed the said sum of seven hundred dollars — otherwise it is to be considered that his, or his heirs, share has been fully paid.

And it is further my will that if said lands or real estate is not susceptible of division among these my heirs without materially impairing the value thereof, I hereby order that the same must be sold and the proceeds divided according to the terms of my will herein expressed. If the lands are divided it must be by the unanimous consent of the heirs. It is my sincere desire that there shall be no litigation over my property and should any one of said heirs attempt, by suit at law, to disturb this my will, such heir shall receive as his or her part One Dollar and no more, and said heirs part so forfeited shall be divided equally among the remainder of these my heirs. Trusting implicitly in the judgment and rectitude of my executor Michael Hannon, whom I hereby appoint as such to carry out the intentions of this my will, and no bond shall be required of him.

In witness whereof, I have signed, sealed, published and declared this instrument as my will at Cloverport, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, on this the 12th day of May A.D. 1896.

Peter Thoman,

The said Peter Thoman, at Cloverport, Breckinridge County, Ky, on the said 12th day of May 1896, signed and sealed this instrument and published and declared the same as and for his last will. And we, at his request, and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have written our names as subscribing witnesses.

D. Hornblaton,
Jno. H. McGowan,
R. L. Newsome.