

I, R.M. Jolly, of Irvington, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory and being desirous of making a different disposition of my estate from that which would be made by law should I die intestate, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills I may have heretofore made.

I. It is my will and desire that all my just debts be first paid.

II. I will and devise to my beloved wife, Lydia A. Jolly lots # 7-8-9-15-16-17-18-19 and 20 in Block # 17, and lots # 15-16 and 17 in Block # 12, and all the improvements thereon, located in the town of Irvington, Breckinridge County Kentucky, to be her property absolutely in fee simple.

III. I will and devise to Mrs Nannie W. Williams, the sum of Seventy-five dollars ($75.00) per year, for each year as long as she shall live, which shall be paid to her in equal installments on the first days of January and July in each year.

IV. I direct my executors not to enforce the collection of the note executed by my father T.J. Jolly to me, until after his death and the death of his wife.

V. One half in value of all the rest, residue and remainder of my property of whatsoever kind or character I hereby will and devise to my beloved wife, Lydia A. Jolly, to be hers absolutely in fee simple. The other one half of my property, I will and devise absolutely in fee simple to my children, Robert Morris; Louis H; Edwin H. and Elizabeth Claire, who shall share equally therein.

VI. In the event that any of my children shall not live to attain the age of 21 years and shall not leave bodily heirs, then the property they are entitled to under this will, shall become the property of my surviving children to be divided equally among them.

VII. I hereby authorize and empower my executors to sell, convey and dispose of all my interest in and to the Irvington Milling Company, and in and to all the property of the said firm, including realty, personalty, notes, accounts and all other interests.

VIII. My executors shall have full power and authority to sell and convey any or all my realty, (except that mentioned in section II of this will) and convert the same into money or notes, whenever in their judgement they shall deem it advantageous to my estate to do so, and the proceeds of such sales shall be divided as is provided in sections V and VI of this will.

IX. I hereby appoint my wife Lydia A. Jolly and my son Louis H. Jolly, executors of this will, and I request the County Court to permit them to qualify as such without executing bond.

In Testimony Whereof, witness my hand and seal, this the 28th day of June 1907.

Witness.

A.B. COLEMAN.

C.H. ADKISSON.

R.M. JOLLY.

Subscribed by the said R.M. Jolly in our presence and acknowledged by him in our presence and we have subscribed our names in the presence of the said R.M. Jolly and in the presence of each other.

IN Testimony Whereof witness our hands and seals this the 28th day of June 1907.

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.

Regular Term August 26th 1907.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of R.M. Jolly, deceased, was this day produced to Court and being duly proven by the oaths of A.B. Coleman and C.H. Adkisson the attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and testament of said R.M. Jolly, deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

ATT. W.F. HOOK, CLERK, B.C.C.

I, Lucy A. Board, wife of Dr. H.C. Board, deceased, of Hardinsburg, Breckinridge County State of Kentucky, do declare this Instrument of writing to be my last will and testament

I. Upon my demise I desire that all my just indebtedness, including all funeral expenses, shall be fully paid.

II. My daughter, Ava, wife of Samuel Henninger, shall have absolutely my sewing machine and silver knives and forks and spoons.

III. All the remainder of my personal property, of whatsoever kind or character, except what is specifically devised and bequeathed in the second paragraph hereto, I desire that my said daughter Mrs Henninger, Dolphus Board and Allen Board, shall have whatever part thereof they may desire, agreeing among themselves as to its distribution. In the event that any of said personal property may be left, after they take what they desire, then whatever residue may be left, shall be turned over to the executor, hereinafter named and disposed of as hereinafter directed.

IV. I devise unto Adolphus J. Board and Allen Board, my two sons, the sum of $100.00 each, to be paid to them by my executor from the proceeds of the sale of my real estate, as hereinafter directed, which sums of money shall be theirs absolutely. To this extent I desire to favor them for the reason that all of my other children are provided with homes and they have remained with me during my widowhood and have contributed to my support.

V. I hereby direct, empower and authorize my executor, hereinafter named, to sell and convey by deed of general warranty, all my real estate situated in Hardinsburg, Kentucky, at whatever consideration, he, in the exercise of his best judgement, may deem to be best, also, authorizing and directing him to sell any personal property, if any, after the provisions of second and third paragraphs hereto are satisfied, and that the entire proceeds of such sale, after payment of the aforesaid devises of $100.00 each to said
