Clerk.

I, Lucinda Gregory of Cloverport, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of sound and disposing mind, do make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills or bequests by me made.

1--- I appoint Julius C. Nolte of Cloverport, Ky., Executor of this my last will and testament, and I direct that he execute bond as required by law, and that he be paid the usual fees for his services.

2--- I direct that my executor shall first pay all my just debts and demands, which are to include a suitable burial and marker to my last resting place, something similar and in keeping with that of my late husband, Lewis G. Gregory, deceased.

3---I direct that my executor pay to my son Emmett G. Gregory the sum of Eight Hundred ($800.00) Dollars in cash out of my personal property belonging to me at my demise, which sum or part thereof shall not be subject to execution to satisfy any debts contracted by him prior to my death or in satisfaction of any judgments heretofore rendered against him.

4--- I direct that my homestead on High Street, be set aside to my son Emmett G. Gregory and his heirs, which also shall not in whole or part be subject to execution for any old debts of his contracted prior to my death or in satisfaction of any judgment heretofore rendered against him, and not to be disposed of by son or his heirs, during his life time and in case of his death before his children one-fourth of the homestead shall be set aside to my granddaughter Dorothy Gregory.

5--- After my executor has complied with my direction specified in paragraphs 2, 3 and 4, , I direct that the residue of my estate that I may die possessed of, real personal or mixed, or any that I may have any pecuniary interest in, wherever situated, shall be divided equally between my grand-daughter Dorothy Gregory one-half, and my living grand-children of my son Emmett G. Gregory one-half, except as provided in the following paragraph 6, to be held in trust for them by a duly appointed guardian or guardians until they shall attain the age of twenty one years, but in the event of the death of my grand-daughter before attaining the age of twenty one years, whatever property remaining in the hands of her guardian devised by me, after paying her burial expenses, if any thing left, shall revert to my living grand-children of my son Emmet G. Gregory, and should any of his children die before attaining the age of twenty one years, their part remaining shall be divided equally between the remaining living children of his, and should they all die before attaining the age of twenty one years, whatever property after paying their burial expenses, shall revert to my son Emmett G. Gregory, which shall not be subject to execution for the same purposes as hereinbefore specified.

6.-- I hold two certain promissory notes for Five Hundred $500.00 dollars each, executed by my son Emmett G. Gregory, one dated July 4th, 1900 and the other dated Nov. 1st, 1902, I direct that any part or all of said notes and accrued interest remaining unpaid at my death shall be cancelled by my executor and that my said son Emmett G. Gregory not be required to pay any such balance or balances due thereon, but any other notes on which I am surety for him, or which he owes to me, I direct that my executor deduct from the one half of the residue bequeathed to his children, my grand-children by my son Emmett G. Gregory.

7.--- I direct that my executor sell any of the real estate that I may die possessed of, except as otherwise herein provided, whenever in his judgement it is best to facilitate matters in settling up promptly my said estate, and that he is hereby empowered to pass a good and clear title
