

Signed and acknowledged in the presence of the undersigned witnesses who sign their names hereto in the presence of each other.

David R. Murray,
Richard Bandy.

I John M. Fisher do make this codicil to my will made on the 5th day of February 1874, to wit My wife and I having on the 25th day of June, 1869 made a contract with my son in law James P. Lewis whereby & under which said Lewis takes an undivided one half interest in stock, crops, farming utensils & the increase of stock; also said Lewis is to have possession and cultivate the home farm and is to have sheep possession of same for a period of five years after the death of myself & wife Elizabeth; which said contract is in writing - now I will and direct that the provisions of my will shall be and remain as it provides except that the provisions thereof shall be subject to the provisions of said contract with said Lewis but when said contract is fully complied with then the provisions of my will shall be executed & carried out. Witness my signature this 6th day of February, 1890. The words "and also" to & including words "in lieu" used before signing.

John M. Fisher.

Signed by John M. Fisher & acknowledged in the presence of the undersigned witnesses, who sign their names hereto in the presence of each other and of the testator.

David R. Murray,
A. R. Fisher.

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court,
Regular Term, Sept. 16th 1895.

The foregoing instrument of writing was this day produced to court, and the body of said instrument was duly proven by the oaths of David R. Murray and Richard Bandy, the attesting witnesses thereto, and the Codicil to said instrument was duly proven by the oaths of David R. Murray and A. R. Fisher, the attesting witnesses thereto, and both the body of said instrument and the codicil thereto were established as and for the last will and testament of John M. Fisher, deceased, and as such was ordered to record. Whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Att: Owen Cunningham, Clerk B.C.C.

Examined I, Samuel W. Cox of the County of Breckinridge State of Kentucky being well advanced in years and desiring to dispose of my property both real and personal do make this my last will and testament hereby revoking any and all former wills I may have made.

I give and devise to my beloved wife Minna Ann Cox the dwelling house and cook room & kitchen and all the house hold & kitchen furniture and all the stock on the farm and all personal property of every kind and all the money & cash notes I may have at my death after my just debts and funeral expenses are paid.

I give and devise to my three sons Clinton J. Cox, Samuel D. Cox, Jaery D. Cox my home tract of land containing one hundred and twenty seven & one half acres 12th more or less land also seventeen and one half acres 17th land bought of G. W. Miller, also forty acres land off of the old Sutton tract & joining the home tract and joining a tract of J. and Ch. Brown for to begin at a point on the home tract and running back to a point on Michael Blaine land so as to lay off the forty acres in a convenient and suitable form I devise the foregoing tracts of land to my three sons herein before mention to them and their heirs for ever but if one of them should dye without heirs then the other two are to become his sole heirs and if two of them should dye without heirs then the other one living are to become their sole heirs & if the third should dye without heirs then he is to dispose of the property as he may desire.

in consideration of the foregoing gift & the natural affection that ~~these three sons have~~ & there farther and mother I hereby obligate them and each of them to take care of and provide for me Samuel W. Cox & my wife Minna Ann Cox during our natural life & to see that each of us have a decent burial. Reserving to myself the usual control of my affairs during my lifetime except in improving the farm this I give to the three sons to whom this gift is made if my wife survives me she is to have control of her house and at her death then the house & all other property now are to go to the three sons C. J., S. D., J. P. Cox. I give and devise to my sons Crawford E. Cox & Jacob P. Cox and Charles H. Cox and my daughters Anna M. Brown, Mary E. DeJannette, Lucetta E. Pate the notes I hold against them to be delivered to them at my death, also to my three sons last mentioned and my three daughters above mentioned I give and devise one hundred and twenty acres of land more or less or all that remains off the old Paston tract after deducting the forty acres already devised to my other three sons to them their heirs forever. But if this land cannot be divided without loss & damage to these six children then it may be sold either at private or public sale as they may desire and my executors are unpowered to make all necessary deeds to the same. I do hereby constitute my three sons Clinton J. Cox, Samuel D. Cox & Jacob P. Cox, Executors of this my last will and testament & request that the court require no security of them. In witness whereof I hereby set my hand and seal this 7th day of July 1887.

Samuel W. Cox.

Signed and acknowledged by Samuel W. Cox
in our presence.

M. Board,
James William Lay.

Kentucky Breckenridge County Court
Regular Term, Oct. 21st 1887.

The foregoing instrument of writing was this day produced to court, and duly proven to the order of Mr. Board and James W. Lay the two attesting witnesses, then, and the same established as the last will and testament of Samuel W. Cox, dead, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Attest: Owen Cunningham, Clerk.

Examined
Jan 4th 1896.

Will of both real and personal estate.

I, Samuel Tucker of Breckenridge County and State of Kentucky, farmer, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

And as to my worldly estate and all the property real, personal, or mixed, of which I shall die seized and possessed, or do which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease, I devise, bequeath, and dispose thereof in the manner following, to wit: My will is, that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall, by my executor hereinafter named, be paid out of my estate, as soon after my decease as shall by them be found convenient. I give devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Joicy F. Tucker, all my household furniture my horses, ^{intentionally} ~~horses~~ farming ~~and~~ also what money I have on hand and is coming to me otherwise and all live stock on my farm, such as cattle and hogs. To have and to hold the same for her. I also give to her my wife Joicy F. Tucker the use of everything real or personal as long as she may live.

I give and bequeath to my daughters, Malisia C. McCoy, Missouri E. Smith and Mattie N. Galloway to each one of them two hundred dollars for their own use and benefit to be paid to them after my wife dead, coming out of my estate or personal property, the balance equally divided