

Aug 29th, 1883

I, Sanford P.Pool of Breckinridge County State of Kentucky, knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death make this my last will and testament as follows; I this day bequeath and will that all my land in fact all my estate both personal and real shall from this datenow and forever belong to my dearly beloved Son Wm P.Pool He is to have and to hold everything I have on earth against the claims of each and all persons claiming the same forever. To my remaining heirs I will them One Dollar ($1.00) and my best wishes.

Attest

his John X McClellan
mark
C.P.Heyser
William P.Pool

his Sanford X P.Pool
mark

State of Ky County of Breckinridge

I, Will Miller Clerk of Breckinridge Co. testify that the foregoing has been properly acknowledged before me this 29th day of August 1883.

Will Miller C.W.C.
by C.P.Heyser D.C.

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Courts
Regular Term, February 26th, 1917.

This day came C.P.Heyser, who wrote the last will and testament of Sanford P.Pool, and attested the same as a witness, in connection with John McClellan and William P.Pool, at the same time taking the acknowledgement of the said Sanford P.Pool to said will, as deputy county Court Clerk of Breckinridge County, Kentucky, and produced said instrument for probate, who testified that he wrote the will as dictated by Sanford P.Pool, and that said instrument was then and there acknowledged by the said Sanford P.Pool, before said Heyser, and in the presence of the other witnesses named, and that said will was signed by mark by said Peol, in the presence of the other witnesses and in the presence of said Sanford P.Pool, at his request, after which the said attesting witness, C.P.Heyser, wrote the certificate thereto attached, on said date, which was the 29th day of August, 1883, and said Heyser stating that the said Sanford P.Pool, at said time, was sound in mind and of disposing capacity; and said instrument was further proven to be the last will and testament of said Sanford P.Pool, by William Le Cannon, who attested the genuineness of the signature of William P.Pool thereto, and who procured said original will from the county clerk of Breckinridge County, Kentucky, where the same had been filed, and said Cannon being interested in the lands devised, by subsequent conveyance, applied for said original instrument and caused the instrument to be offered for probate; whereupon, after hearing all the evidence and being advised, the court adjudged said written instrument offered to be the last will and testament of said testator, Sanford P.Pool, and said instrument together with the certificate thereto appended, is now ordered to be recorded in the proper will book in the Breckinridge County Court Clerk's Office. Whereupon the same together with this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Attest;

C.W.Robertson, Clerk

I, Bluford Still, of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, do make this my last Will and testament- I give and devise to my beloved wife Alice Ethel Lee in lieu of her dower, that part of the farm on which we now reside and known as the Strother tract containing 127 $\frac{1}{2}$  acres during her natural life also 181 $\frac{1}{2}$  acres of land known as the Shumate tract to have and to hold during her natural life so long as she remains my widow- Both the 127 $\frac{1}{2}$  acre tract and the 181 $\frac{1}{2}$  acre tract are to be held and controlled by her during her natural life or so long as she remains my widow- The remaining 100 acres of land known as the Anderson tract I give to my four children Minnie Still, Iva Lee Still, Ida Francis Still and Adolph Still in equally shares, I further devise that my