att H. M. Read Clerk

I, William P. Tucker of the County, Breckinridge, State of Kentucky, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former will I may have made.

I give and devise to my beloved wife Parthina Tucker in lieu of her dower, the farm on which we now reside situated in the county of Breckinridge on the main road from McDaniels to Hudson containing 128 acres more or less during her natural life and all the stock, household goods, furniture, provision and notes and all other personal property which may be thereon at the time of my decease during her natural life as aforesaid to use as she may want too. She however may sell any or as much of property as may demand to pay my just debts if there be any debts. At the death of my said wife the real estate aforesaid I give
