

WILL OF S.B. & W.L. Cannon,

We S.B. & W. L. Cannon (Bros), of Breckenridge County, Kentucky, do declare this ~~now~~ to be our last will and testament, further declaring that we have never heretofore made a will.

FIRST At our deaths or as soon thereafter as is practical.

We desire that all our Just debts shall first be Paid, if any there be,

SECOND After the payment of our debts then it is our will that any and all of our property whether it be real personal or mixed, shall be divided equally among W.L. Cannon's children who shall be then living or the heirs of any of them who may be dead,

In testimony whereof, We have hereunto set our hand this the 26th day of October A .D.1928,

We further that there be a respectable monument put at each of our Graves.

W.L. Cannon

S.B. Cannon.

We the undersigned and subscribing witnesses hereto declare that the foregoing will was written, read to, signed and acknowledged By S.B. Cannon and W.L. Cannon in our presence that they thoroughly understood the purport thereof; that it was written at their dictation and that they signed their names thereto in our presence and that we in turn subscribed our names hereto in their presence and in the presence of each other, on the day and date as above written..
