

Commonwealth of Kentucky,
County of Breckinridge,

Madrid, Kentucky,

October, 9th, 1911.

I, C. A. Hall of Madrid, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being over twenty-one years of age, and of sound mind and disposing memory, hereby make publish and declare this as my last Will and Testament, the provisions and only provisions are as follows: to-wit: I, hereby give and bequeath all my estate and property real and personal and of all kinds, whatsoever in fee simple and forever to my beloved wife Emilie Hall of Madrid in said County and state, so long as she remains my widow. At my wife death or Marriage my son Oscar shall (200.00 Two Hundred dollars and the remainder to be equally divided between all of my bodily heirs.

I hereby designate and appoint my wife as Executrix of this my last will, my said beloved wife Emilie Hall and request, urge that she be permitted to qualify as executrix of my will without any bond whatsoever.

In Witness Whereof I have signed, declared this instrument as my Last Will and Testament, in said county and state aforesaid. On this October 9th 1911.

C. A. Hall.

Witnesses

H. A. Cannon
E. C. Lampton.

State of Kentucky,
County of Breckinridge.

We, the undersigned, subscribing witnesses to the last will and testament of C. A. Hall of Madrid, Kentucky being first duly sworn, say the foregoing instrument to be his last will and testament in our presence, that we attest the publication and signature of said will at the special instance and request of said C. A. Hall and signed same as such attesting witnesses in his presence and in the presence of each other.

In Testimony Whereof witness our signatures this October 9, 1911.

H. A. Cannon.
E. C. Lampton.

Attesting witnesses to the will.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by H. A. Cannon and E. C. Lampton this October 9, 1911.

Herbert M. Beard. G. B. R. G.
By Tice McCoy. Deputy. G.

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.
Regular Term, January 1912.

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of C. A. Hall deceased, was this day produced to court and offered for probate, whereupon came E. C. Lampton one of the attesting witnesses thereto, being duly sworn, acknowledged his signature to said will and certified that H. A. Cannon signed said will as subscribing witness to said will, that the testator C. A. Hall signed said will in their presence and they in his presence and in the presence of each other, whereupon the court being sufficient advised, it is adjudged to be the last will and testament of the said C. A. Hall deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Attest: N. M. Remond Clerk.

I, Thomas Jefferson Whitfill of Hardinsburg, County of Breckinridge, state of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following.

I give, devise and bequeath to Laura Sophonia Whitfill, my first daughter, deceased (who married E. E. Wheatley) to her heirs, her equal proportion, and to Clara Livania Whitfill, my second daughter, (who marries Berry Dalton) her equal proportion, and to Sarah Elizabeth Whitfill, my third daughter, who married Henry C. Wheatley, and next to Grant Dennis her equal proportion and five acres of land over and above the others for the work her children has done for me and to Frances Honerethia Whitfill my fourth daughter who married John H. Hampton her equal proportion, and to Frances Ellen Whitfill my fifth daughter who married Joseph Wheatley, her equal proportion, and to my son Angus G. Whitfill his equal proportion and to Mary Susan Whitfill, my seventh and last child I bequeath to her and equal proportion and twenty five acres of land and the house and its contents provided she stays and takes care of me until I die if she (Mary S. Whitfill) should die before me her part to her heir and I hereby constitute and appoint Alexander E. Stinnett as executors of this my last will and testament, revoking and annulling all former wills by me made and ratifying this, and no other, to be my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I, Thomas Jefferson Whitfill, have hereunto set my hand this twenty-eighth day of A. D. January 1911.

T. J. Whitfill.

Signed, published and declared by the above named T. H. Whitfill as his last will and testament in presence of us who at his request have signed as witness of said will

James C. Sutton.
Henry Mattingly.

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.
Regular term, January 1912.

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of T. J. Whitfill, deceased, was this day produced to court and offered for probate, whereupon came James C. Sutton and Henry Mattingly the two attesting witnesses, being duly sworn, certify that they signed said will as attesting witnesses thereto, and that the said testator signed said will in their presence and they in his presence and in the presence of each other, whereupon the court being advised, it adjudged as and for the last will and testament of the said T. J. Whitfill deceased and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate is duly recorded.

Attest: H. M. Beard Clerk.

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN. I, Mary E. Dehaven, of Cloverport, Ky., being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and publish this my last Will and Testament.

1st: I desire that all of my just debts be first paid, but there is none existing.

2nd: The property where I now reside, that is my home place, I leave to my daughter Mamie Dehaven, to be used, occupied and controlled by her as long as she remains single, or unmarried, when she shall marry, I desire, and it is my will that the said property shall then be equally divided among all of my children. I desire that my little Grand-son, Carl Dehaven interest in this property, shall, at such time as it may be converted into money, be placed in the hands of a reliable Trust Company and be held there for him until he becomes 21 years of age, and should he die before arriving at the age of 21 years, then the said interest is to revert to my children and be equally divided between them, I hereby direct that my daughter Mamie take control of and manage my little grand-sons interest in the property going to him in this my will.

3rd. I hereby give and bequeath to my daughter Mamie Dehaven, absolutely all of my house hold and kitchen furniture to be used by her as her own.

4th. I desire that my daughter Mamie shall have the rents arising from my tenant house, known as the McGreen tenant house, while she remains single, and when she marries, then said property shall go to my son Wickliff Dehaven and become his absolutely.

5th. I hereby appoint my son Philo Dehaven, Executor of this my last will.

In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 20th day of July 1911.

Mary E. Dehaven.

Signed in our presence who witnesses the signature of the testator and also that of each other. This 20th day of July, 1911.

Charles E. Keil.
W. G. Babbage.

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.
Regular Term, February, 26th, 1912.

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary E. Dehaven was this day produced to court and offered for probate, come W. G. Babbage one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, first being duly sworn, acknowledged his signature to said instrument, also states that Charles E. Keil signed said instrument as a witness, and that they, each signed said instrument in the presence of the testator, and the said testator signed said instrument on their presence, and they in the presence of each other, whereupon the court being sufficiently advised it is adjudged that said instrument is the last will and testament of the said Mary E. Dehaven, deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same is duly recorded.

Attest: H. M. Beard Clerk.