

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.

Regular Term, June 22nd 1908.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George W. Pile, deceased, was this day produced to Court, and being duly proven by the oath of R. M. Brown, one of the attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and testament of said George W. Pile, deceased, and as such was ordered to record whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

ATT: W. F. HOOK, <sup>clerk</sup> B. C. C.

In the name of God Amen, I Mary E. Hawkins, of Cloverport Breckinridge County Kentucky being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby make and publish this my last Will, and testament, hereby revoking all others heretofore made.

FIRST. It is my wish and desire that all my just debts be first paid.

SECOND. It is my will and desire that my beloved daughter Letitia E. Hawkins, who has been my chief help and support for the past twelve years, be given charge of, and take in her own right, and in fee simple, all of the real estate which I now own and possess, I also desire that she be given, and take in her own right, all the personal property I now own, the household goods being all that I now own.

THIRD; To my daughter Mary Francis Kinder, I hereby give and bequeath the sum of One Dollar.

FOURTH. To the Children and heirs of my daughter Eliza Ahl I give and bequeath the sum of one dollar, Eliza Ahl is now dead, and left no heirs, and I desire the one dollar here mentioned to be paid to her husband--- Christopher Ahl.

FIFTH. To the children and heirs of my son Jefferson Hawkins I hereby give and bequeath the sum of One dollar. I hereby constitute, and appoint my friend Lucien V. Chapin, executor of my will, and cloth him with full power to carry the same into effect.

Wherefore witness my hand this 24th, day of September 1907.

her
MARY E. HAWKINS.
mark

Attest; V. G. BABBAGE.

Signed and sealed in the presence of us who witnesses the signing of the Testator and also each other this 24th, day of September 1907.

J. H. WILLS.
JULIUS C. NOLTE.

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.

Regular Term, June 22nd 1908.

The foregoing Instrument of Writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary E. Hawkins, deceased, was this day produced to Court and being duly proven by the oaths of J. H. Wills and Julius C. Nolte, the attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and testament of said Mary E. Hawkins, deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

Att; W. F. HOOK, CLERK, B. C. C.

I, T. L. Carter of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind but feeble in health and realizing the uncertainty of life, do make this my last will and testament, I give and devise to my beloved wife Rosa One Blacksmith shop and all the stock and tools therein, also, our present dwelling house and lot with all the household goods, furniture provisions and all other personal property which may be then at the time of my decease, she however being directed to sell so much of the personal property as may be necessary to pay my just debts. I do hereby appoint my wife Rosa executrix of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 12th, day of May 1908.

T. L. CARTER.

Signed and acknowledged by T. L. Carter in our presence

CHAS H. DRURY.
GEO R. COMPTON.

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court.

Regular Term, June 22nd 1908.

The foregoing Instrument of writing purporting to be the last Will and testament of T. L. Carter, deceased, was this day produced to Court, and being duly proven by the oaths of Chas H. Drury and Geo R. Compton, the attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and testament of said T. L. Carter, deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.

ATT; W. F. HOOK, CLERK, B. C. C.