

October 14, 1932.

Be it known to unto all men By these Presents I the said T.R. Bland Being of sound mind and now of Irvington, Kentucky, Have made my last will and Testament, That my estate to be disposed of as follows: All of my real estate and house hold Goods of all description after first paying all of my Just debts, are to be the property of C.T. and Bessie Decker, my nephew and niece and that the said Bessie Decker, be and hereby is named by me the said T.R. Bland as Executrix without bond and all of my life Insurance which is made payable to my wife Ola Bland who is now deceased must be paid to my said Niece Bessie Decker whom I have have nominated Executrix without bond of this my last Will and Testament, and that the life Insurance be equally divided Between C.T. Decker, Bessie Decker and Mary Beiven who is also my niece after having paid my debts ^{from} said Insurance

As witness hereunto I have this day set my hand,

T.R. Bland

This 14th day of October 1932.

All deeds and Insurance are in The First State Bank, Irvington, Ky.

IN RE: Will of T.R. Bland

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of T.R. Bland, deceased, was this day produced to court duly filed and ordered to be read, the will being a Holographic Will the signature and handwriting was proven by the testimony of C.T. Decker and E.H. Shelman who was familiar with the handwriting of the deceased, whereupon the same was established as and for the last will and Testament of the said T.R. Bland and is ordered to record.

Whereupon the same with the foregoing and this certificate have been duly recorded in my said office.

Given under my hand this 22nd day of January 1934.

Ernie Bates,	Clerk
By Chester Bennett	DC.