

Will of both real and personal estate of Jesse I. Tucker of Breckinridge County, and State of Kentucky, former King of Sound and disposing mind memory do, do make public and declares this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

And as to my worldly estate and all the property, real, personal, or mixed, of which I shall die seized and possessed or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease I devise bequeath and dispose thereof in the following manner to-wit: my will is that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be paid by my Executor, as soon after my decease as shall be by them found convenient. To-wit: I give devise and bequeath to my youngest son Seralon Tucker tous sold furniture my horses mules farming utensils, also what money I have on hand and is coming to me otherwise and all live stock on my farms, such as cattle and hogs.

In have and to hold the same for him real or personal forever among all and lawful, I do nominate and appoint my son Seralon Tucker to be the executor of this my last will and testament without bond. For witness whereof I the said Jesse I. Tucker have subscribed my name and affixed my seal this the 20th day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety nine Jesse I. Tucker

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Jesse I. Tucker as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

W. D. Smith

Wm. L. Matthews

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court
Regular Term Jan 28th 1901

The foregoing instrument of writing was this day produced to Court and duly proven by the oaths of W. D. Smith and Wm. L. Matthews the two attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and testament of Jesse I. Tucker Dead and such was ordered to be recorded upon the same & this certificate has been duly recorded.

Chas. Cora Cunningham Clerk B.C.C.

Witness

I Wilson Jolly of the County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky being in sound mind and memory have made this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills made by me.

First: It is my will that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

Second: I have conveyed to my two sons George Tucker Jolly and John Franklin Jolly land in Breckinridge County which I consider will make them equal to the rest of my children and they are to have no other interest in my estate.

Third: I give and bequeath all the estate that I may die seized and possessed of to my eight children: viz. Lucy C. Miller wife of John Miller Maith, A. Hendrick wife of James Hendrick, Maria A. Addison wife of Elias Addison, Mary C. Lyons wife of Peter Lyons, Nancy R. Haggner wife of Henry Haggner, James D. Jolly, Harry M. Jolly, and Adah Jolly.

Part of my estate consists in notes on some of my of my children named in this paragraph of my will and said notes are to be charged to them as part of their interest in my estate on settlement.

The estate devised to my daughters is to be held by them as separate estate and is to be free from the control or indebtedness of any husband they may have or may hereafter have.

Fourth: I hereby appoint my sons George Tucker Jolly and John Franklin Jolly executors of my estate, and my will and testament, and they are to settle my estate without charge for their services for I have already given them enough to pay therefor, and as I have perfect confidence in their honesty and integrity I request the Court not to require security of them on their bond.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this the 20th day of December 1898.
Wilson Jolly.

Subscribed and acknowledged before us by Wilson Jolly and by us in his presence as witnesses
John Alexander
Morris Eshridge

Kentucky Breckenridge County Court
Regular Term Jan 25th 1901.

The foregoing instrument of writing was this day produced to Court and duly proven by the oaths of John Alexander & Morris Esbridge the two attesting witnesses thereto, was established as and for the last will and testament of Wilson Jolly Seab and such was ordered to record thereupon the same and this certificate hereunto duly recorded.
Wm. C. Cunningham C. K. C. C.

Examine

I, Nell Miller of the County of Breckenridge State of Kentucky being in sound mind & male this my last will and testament. First- I desire and will that all my just debts of any nature or kind at the time of my death shall be paid out of any money I may have on hand at the time of my death as also my funeral and burial expenses.

Second- I will and devise to my children Ella Miller and Mary Agnes Miller all of the real estate I may own and hold at my death in the Counties of Breckenridge & Hancock State of Kentucky to be divided equally between or held jointly by them as they shall desire. I will also devise this real estate to my said children as their and each of their separate estate; not in anywise subject or liable to the control or debts of their husbands (if they or either of them should marry) and also limited so that they nor either of them nor their husbands nor either of them shall have power to encumber said estate or any part of it or place any liens of any character thereon or bring my intentions to or devise said real estate that my said daughters may have the use, possession and profits thereof but not to subject the same in any manner to their or their husbands' disposal by sale or otherwise or alienation by them by will or by deed or in any manner whatsoever.

Third- I will and devise to my said two children all the real estate owned and held by me at my death, whereof said real estate is provided in the foregoing clauses) and of whatever nature, belonging to them, the said real estate equally, and devised to them as separate estate.

Fourth- I bequeath to my said two children equally, all the cash and other stock and bonds, County Municipal & Railroad

I may hold and own at my death but I provide and direct that said bonds and stock shall not be sold by them or transferred by them or their husbands or encumbered by them or used as collateral or other security by them, but the same shall be held by the Executor hereinafter named as trustee, who shall collect the interest on same and pay the same to my said children or to their guardians, if they or either of them are not at maturity. My said Executor is directed and authorized to reinvest any proceeds of such stock and bonds as may mature and be called in, in like securities or United States bonds.

Fifth- The remainder of the personal estate of which I may die possessed I bequeath to my two children equally.

Sixth- I provide and direct that should either of my children die childless that the remaining one shall inherit the property both real and personal herein devised and bequeathed to each as one so dying and I will that the survivor shall take and hold all said property both real and personal and shall hold the same under and subject to the provisions of this will as to her original share.

Seventh- Should both of my said children die childless, I will that all of the property both real and personal devised and bequeathed in this will shall be taken and held by such heir or heirs of my children on their paternal side (it being my intention that the paternal heirs under the laws of descent & distribution) shall take all of said property in the event that my said children should both die childless.

Eighth- If my children or either of them shall leave issue, I will that such issue of either shall take the property devised and bequeathed herein, if both have issue such issue to take the share of their mother- If one only shall have issue, such issue to take the property of both mother and aunt.

Ninth- I hereby appoint my brother John Miller the Executor of this will, who will also act as trustee under the fourth clause of this will. It is my desire that no bond be required of my said brother as either Executor or trustee as aforesaid.

Witness my hand and seal this the 1st day of February A.D. 1901.
Subscribed by the testator
Nell Miller
in the presence of the subscribing witnesses who have subscribed their names hereto in the presence of the testator & of each other.
Wm. C. Mearns