

from the records in my office in Will Book #53 Page 138a.

Witness my hand this October 15th, 1917. Signed in the name of the witness

P. S. Ray, Clerk,
Jefferson County Court, Kentucky

State of Kentucky, County of Breckinridge, State of Kentucky, on the 3rd day of November, 1917, in the County of Breckinridge, State of Kentucky, I, C. V. Robertson, Clerk of the County Court for the County and State aforesaid, do certify that the foregoing will of Clarence T. Pope, deceased, was this day lodged in my office for record, whereupon the same with this and the foregoing certificates thereon have been duly recorded in my said office.

Witness my hand, this 3rd, day of November, 1917.

C. V. Robertson, Clerk.

Will of Wm. Brumfield

I, Wm. Brumfield of Union Star, in the County of Breckinridge and the State of Kentucky, being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills by me at any time ~~hereinafter~~ made.

1. I bequeath to my two sons, Everitt ~~Aurthur~~ Brumfield, and William Andrew Brumfield, my farm of eighty-five and one-half acres, lying and being in the County of Breckinridge and the State of Kentucky, to have and to hold as long as they shall live, then to revert to their ~~heirs~~. If either of these shall die without issue, his share shall go to the other brother, if both shall die without issue the place shall then go to my daughter Atha Anna Brumfield, if she be living and unmarried, if married to her and her sister Mrs. Mary Ellen Troutman to theirs as long as they both live, this land shall not be divided or sold but go to their legal heirs.

2. I bequeath to my daughter, Mrs. Mary Ellen Troutman, the sum of one hundred dollars, which shall be paid by my two sons from the profits and emoluments occurring from the use of the above mentioned land. The aforesaid one hundred dollars shall be paid in full four years after my death, but may be paid in annual installments of twenty-five dollars each year.

3. I bequeath to my daughter, Atha Anna Brumfield, the right to always have a home on the above mentioned land with, and share equally with her brothers, as long as she shall remain unmarried. If she shall marry she shall relinquish all rights and title to said land, and shall receive as her part, the sum of one hundred dollars, said sum to be paid by my two sons, in annual installments of twenty-five dollars until paid. I also bequeath to Atha Anna Brumfield, my daughter, one cow; and one bed and bedding, also one sewing machine and one weaving loom.

4. I bequeath to my son, William Andrew Brumfield, one horse and one shot gun.

5. All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real personal and mixed, I give devise and bequeath to my two sons Everitt ~~Aurthur~~ Brumfield and William Andrew Brumfield to be shared equally.

In witness ~~whereof~~, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 22 day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

W. E. Brumfield

The above written instrument, consisting of one page, was subscribed by the said Wm. Brumfield in our presence, and acknowledged by him to each of us; and we at the same time ---- the above instrument as relinquishing to be his last will and testament; and we at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have signed our names as witness thereto, and written ~~giving~~ our names our respective places of residence, on the day and year above written.

WITNESSES: E. P. Krouse Residing at Union Star Breckinridge Co., Ky.,
J. B. Severs

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Courts.

Regular Term, November 26th, 1917.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Wm H. Brumfield, deceased, was this day produced to Court and duly proven by the oath of E. P. Kreash, one of the attesting witnesses thereto, whereupon the same was established as and for the last will and testament of the said Wm H. Brumfield, deceased, and as such ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Attest: C. V. Robertson, Clerk.

Cleversport Kentucky

August 13, 1910

On this Day I will my house and lot here
On this Day I will my house and lot here in Cleversport Ky
To my wife Emma her life time at her Death then falls to my children or my Heirs, and if
She fails to Draw A portion she is to have 50 Dollars A year out of the other estate for seven
7 years the rest of my Estate to be Equally Divided between my children
I will Against T. D. Wethington my son and Henry Mattingly Administrator of the Estate
W. R. Wethington

Witness above Paul Lewis.

Cleversport Ky May 4, 1914

I will change the other side of this will A little as long as my wife remains my widow that stands

W. R. Wethington

Kentucky Breckinridge County Courts

Regular Term, November 26th, 1917.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of W. R. Wethington, deceased, was this day produced to Court and offered for probate, and being duly proven by the oaths of P. D. Wethington and Henry Mattingly to be wholly written by the said W. R. Wethington, deceased, and to be wholly in his own handwriting, whereupon the same was established as and for the last will and testament of the said W. R. Wethington, deceased, and as such ordered to record.

Then was produced to Court a writing purporting to be a Codicil to the aforesaid will and being duly proven by the oaths of P. D. Wethington and Henry Mattingly to be wholly written and signed by the said W. R. Wethington, deceased, and to be wholly in his own handwriting, whereupon the same was established as a Codicil to the foregoing will and as such ordered to record, whereupon the aforesaid will and codicil, together with this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Attest: C. V. Robertson, Clerk.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That I, Emma Wethington, ^{and} widow of W. R. Wethington, deceased, do hereby renounce the provisions of the Will of my husband, W. R. Wethington, who died a resident of and domiciled in Cleversport, Kentucky, on the----- day of September 1917, and which Will was on the 26th day of November, 1917, admitted to probate by the Breckinridge County Court, and established as the last will and testament of the said W. R. Wethington; and I hereby relinquish the provisions of said Will for my benefit and elect to take my dower and distribution share of my said husbands estate as if no will had been made by him; to-wit: One half, absolutely