Thence N. 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ E. 45 $\frac{1}{2}$ to a stone on Smiths side. White oak Elm and sugar tree pointer J. M. Cannon line thence with his line N. 72 $\frac{1}{2}$ E. 45 $\frac{1}{2}$ to the beginning second exception my dwelling house stable garden spot warehouse and orchard in which warehouse stands are excepted and at my death I give to my son F. L. Cannon. Third exception is the George Paul tract given to J. M. Cannon out of the John McDaniel tract.

I also give unto my son F. L. Cannon the stockhouse and lot I own as McDaniel. I also give to him the eighteen hundred dollars that I had invested in the goods with him. The intention of this Will is that the land here given to F. L. Cannon is to be his wholly at my death upon the condition that F. L. Cannon fulfill the obligation here described to wit he is to pay me during my life three hundred and fifty dollars yearly, and should my wife Nancy J. Cannon be living at my death he F. L. Cannon is to pay her one hundred and fifty dollars yearly as long as she lives. F. L. Cannon is to furnish me at my yard gate fifteen cord of fire wood each year of my life. This land set out here to F. L. Cannon he is to have control fully after this present crop is matured, but not to sell the land or timber or any part thereof during my life time without my consent. I am to pay the taxes on the land unless the taxes exceed fifty dollars and if they exceed fifty dollars I am to pay the fifty dollars but no more.

3rd To Hattie Hatfield who I acknowledge to be my daughter and I desire her to call herself and to be known by the name of Hattie T. Cannon. I desire and bequeath to her five thousand dollars in cash which now consists principally in life insurance on my life to be paid to her at my death as described by me to my executor of this my will. I further gave to my daughter Hattie T. Cannon and her mother Irasa Langley all land owned by me at the present time. Not willing to J. H. Cannon & F. L. Cannon upon condition that Hattie T. Cannon remains single, should she cease to be single the land here given to Hattie T. Cannon shall go to F. L. Cannon and Hattie T. Cannon shall give her mother Irasa Langley a support as long as Irasa Langley remains single. Should Irasa Langley cease to remain single her right and title to this land cease immediately. Should Hattie T. Cannon die without a lawful bodily heir before her mother Irasa Langley and should Irasa Langley be single, I desire and will that my executor shall pay Irasa Langley the interest on the five thousand dollars given to Hattie T. Cannon Irasa Langley's national life or as long as she remains single. Should Irasa Langley cease to remain single after the death of Hattie T. Cannon I desire and will that my executor pay her one thousand dollars, and the remainder of the five thousand dollars to be divided equally between my two sons J. H. Cannon and F. L. Cannon. Should Irasa Langley die single without Hattie T. Cannon leaving a lawful heir, the five thousand dollars given to Hattie T. Cannon shall be divided equally between J. H. Cannon and F. L. Cannon. The land here given to Hattie T. Cannon, and Irasa Langley I reserve a well way through to the public road at the road now run for the use and benefit of F. L. Cannon. 4th All other property cash and cash notes not disposed of in this will I desire and will shall be equally divided between my two sons J. H. Cannon and F. L. Cannon.

5th I appoint my son J. H. Cannon without bond or executor of this my will and I desire my executor to pay the five thousand dollars given to Hattie T. Cannon on interest and to pay to her yearly the interest on said five thousand dollars, after deducting a reasonable compensation for attending to her business and I further direct my executor that if Hattie T. Cannon should marry he shall invest the greater portion of the five thousand dollars in land and have the land deeded to her and her lawful bodily heirs, and the remainder to be paid to her or invested in farm implements and farm stock. I have great confidence in the one I have appointed as executor of my will and should he place this money in bank and should the bank fail, he is not held responsible. 6th The property and other valuable allotted to each heir in the provision of this will shall be each heirs share and no more. 7th The land here given to Hattie T. Cannon and Irasa Langley the little nest in Hattie T. Cannon and should she marry or die the land immediately goes to F. L. Cannon, my son J. H. Cannon or in case of J. H. Cannon's death F. L. Cannon is to control the land here given to Hattie T. Cannon. Hattie T. Cannon is not to have in this will to see and convey this land. This land is to be Hattie T. Cannon's home as long she remains single. Should Irasa Langley leave this home while it remains Hattie T. Cannon's through the advice or influence of J. H. Cannon and F. L. Cannon or either one of them, she shall have as good a home provided for her out of the property given to J. H. Cannon and F. L. Cannon in the fourth clause or provision of this will. 8th Should J. H. Cannon or F. L. Cannon or their heirs fail to pay Harvey J. Cannon the one hundred and fifty dollars each heirs hand shall be held to her for this amount. Witness my hand this 3 day of June 1900.
