Constantine, Ky, August the 18th, 1896.
I, Geo. P. Nottingham, having & being at my right mind and believing this to be right so hereby will & bequeath to my daughter Lucinda E. Nottingham, at my death one half of all the money & lands and other property that I may be possessed of and should I have any person or persons other than her at my death that would be legally entitled to a part in my estate then after said one half is given to said Lucinda E. Nottingham then the other one half must be equally divided with my said daughter and who ever there may be that would under the law be entitled to a division of my estate and I prefer to make C. C. Weymouth, Executor of this my will and that his fees for said services shall not exceed seventy five dollars, unless the parties concerned prefer and agree on some one other than said Weymouth the fees or charge & not to exceed seventy five dollars for their services, may then choose some one else. Written by me and signed by me in the presence of J. J. Priest and Laura Priest his wife and signed by them in my presence in the year of our Lord the day & date above written.
Geo. P. Nottingham.

In the name of God, Amen.

I, William L. Bridwell of the County of Breckinridge & State of Ky. do hereby publish & declare this my last will & testament hereby revoking any and all wills by me heretofore made.

First I direct my executors hereafter named to pay my funeral expenses and all my just debts and liabilities as soon as can conveniently be done after my decease.

I give & bequeath to my wife Sarah J. Bridwell all my lands I also give to my said wife Sarah J. Bridwell all the household furniture beds bedding household provisions and other consumable stores which shall be in or about my said dwelling house at the time of my decease.

The provision of this my will if accepted by my said wife shall be her lieu and has of all dower and thirds and all right of dower and thirds which my said wife shall have or claim in my estate.

All the rest residue and remainder of my estate real and personal wheresoever situate of which I may die seized and possessed or in any wise entitled to not hereinbefore effectually disposed of I give devise and bequeath to my said wife, to have and to hold the remainder of her natural life and at her death to be divided equally between my heirs.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 22nd day of July, 1896.
Wm L. Bridwell.

Examined. Know all men by these presents, that I the undersigned Alfred Harrell of the County of Breckinridge, and State of Ky, whose name is signed at the close hereof, being old, and of feeble health, yet of sound mind disposing memory, do in view of my approaching death, make, publish and declare this instrument of writing to be my last will and testament to wit. After my decease it is my desire that all my just debts, if any, also my burial expenses be paid in full. The remainder of my estate shall be divided and distributed as follows:

My executor herein after named shall pay to Sally Harrell, widow of my deceased brother Moses Harrell, one hundred dollars, and he shall also pay to E. A. Moore second son of John P. Moore one hundred dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date of my death until he shall become 21 years of age, all to be due and payable to said E. A. Moore on his 21st birth day, and he will also pay to Wm Harrell my brother four hundred dollars, and all the remainder of my estate I will and bequeath to my nephew Eld Wm V. Harrell to have and hold with title in fee simple, this to include my farm in Grayson County Ky, and all the remainder of my property as aforesaid of whatever kind or desc. it may be. I hereby appoint the said Wm V. Harrell my executor to carry out the provisions of this will, and I intend for said Eld Wm V. Harrell to have said farm in Grayson County aforesaid absolutely as his own for himself and his heirs and assigns forever, whether there be enough of my estate otherwise to pay the legacies aforesaid or not.

Witness my hand this March 13th 1890.

Examined. I, Martha Wolverton of Breckinridge County State of Kentucky being of sound mind, but being sick, do make this my will, and revoke any and all others that I may have hereto made.

1st I desire an equal division of all the property I have, both my own, and that left me by Mother's will, between the heirs of my mother Susan Tucker, the notes given me by my mother against some of the heirs, and which I now hold must be charged to them in a settlement of my estate, and that amount must be deducted from their portion. The notes that are held against the husbands of my mother's daughters must be charged as though they were given by their wives, this was my mother's request of me. I should have said, and I do say now, that my first desire is that my funeral expenses and all just debts must be first paid.

2nd I desire that Dr J. M. Walker shall act as my Executor. this April 24. 1897.

Martha Wolverton.
