

335

I, William H. Dowell, whose post office is Union Star, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills by me heretofore made.

Item No. 1. I direct my executor hereinafter named, that within a reasonable time after my death, to pay all of my just debts, including my burial expenses and the cost of a modest tombstone to be erected at my grave.

Item No. 2. I will, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mary E. Dowell, My home farm, the farm on which I now live and reside, said farm containing two hundred and fourteen and one-fourth (214 $\frac{1}{4}$) Acres, same farm bought by me from P. D. Hawkins about the year of 1909, to her, during her natural life, to use, occupy and enjoy during her lifetime, with the request that said farm be kept in reasonable good repairs, and at her death that same be sold by my executor hereinafter named and the proceeds of sale hereof be equally divided among all of my six children, and after the death of my said wife, I give to my said executor hereinafter named, power to sell and convey said property and pass a perfect title thereto.

Item No. 3. I give, devise and bequeath to my six children, share and share alike, all of my personal property of every kind and description, whersoever located, including money, notes, stock, farming implements and tools and every species of personal property, and I direct my executor hereinafter named, that within a reasonable time after my death, to convert all of my personal property into cash or money, and to divide it equally among my six children.

Item No. 4. I hereby appoint my son, Otis W. Dowell, Executor of this my last Will and testament and request the County Court of Breckinridge County to permit him to qualify without executing any bond, having faith in his honesty and integrity.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, Witness my signature this the 3d day of August, 1925.

William H. Dowell

We, the undersigned, at the request of William H. Dowell, have signed our names as witnesses to this his will, in his presence and in the presence of each other, this the day and date above written.

Mary Davis
T. F. Birkhead.

STATE OF KENTUCKY,
Breckinridge County Court,
Regular Term, Aug. 27, 1925.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of William H. Dowell, deceased, was this day produced to Court, admitted to probate, and duly proven to be, and established as and for, the last Will and Testament of the said William H. Dowell, deceased, and as such was ordered to record, whereupon the same with this certificate has been duly recorded.

A. T. Beard, Clerk.