

I, William Raccoe Burdette, of the County of Breckinridge and the State of Kentucky, being of full age, and of sound mind, do hereby make public and declare this my last will and testament, in the manner following, namely:—

I I direct my Executors hereinafter appointed to pay out of my estate, as soon as may be after my decease, all my just debts, and my funeral and Testamentary expenses.

II I give, devise, and bequeath all of my estate of whatsoever kind, whether real personal or mixed, and wheresoever situated to my wife, Annie Burdette, with full power and authority to dispose thereof, in any way or manner she may wish, whether by deed of mortgage, deed of conveyance, Last will and testament, or in any other manner.

III Lastly, I appoint my said wife, Annie Burdette, the executrix of this will, to serve as such without bond, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 27th day of February 1901.

William Raccoe Burdette (Seal)

I, Ralph Lucas of the County of Breckinridge, State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and being desirous of making a different disposition of my property from that which would be made by law should I die intestate do make public and declare this to be my last will and testament.

First, it is my will and desire that upon my death that all my belongings shall be sold at Public Auction, consisting all Real Estate and Personal Property, 4 cups one bay mare, six head of hogs, one cow and corn crop, some household and kitchen furniture, which I have set apart for my wife Lizzie Lucas.

Second, it is my will and desire that said Auction sale be the first day of January, 1924, and all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

Third, it is my will and desire that my wife Lizzie Lucas shall be executrix of my will, without bond, in testimony whereof witness my hand this 9th day of August 1923.
Ralph Lucas.
